Recessional Hymn: Missal #179 Eternal Father, Strong to Save

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."
How often do we tell ourselves, "I'll get to that tomorrow"? We delay a difficult conversation or promise ourselves that life will slow down, that we can pray later, or even say something simple like, "I'll take out the trash later" (yup, you guessed it—I just did that). We intend to make more time to pray: "I'll go to adoration next time. I'll forgive that person later." Just not today. It's human nature to procrastinate.

But in this weekend's Gospel, Jesus gives us a reason not to put things off: "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Every time I read this sentence, I feel a little uneasy. Do you? We like to know what is coming; I hate surprises. We keep calendars, make plans, dream about and prepare for the future. Yet we cannot schedule our encounter with the Lord; we do not know when we'll be called home to the Lord. Jesus is asking us to consider how we are living with the time we have been given, not knowing how long that is.

A Message from Our Clergy

Deacon Jared

Notice that when you hear (or reread) the Gospel, all ten virgins fall asleep. Even the wise ones grow tired. The difference is that some have brought enough oil to be ready to encounter Christ, and some have not. Staying awake means more than keeping our yes open. It means nurturing our faith so we are ready to encounter Christ whenever that time comes.

Consider, in this parable, the oil as our faith that we cultivate through God's grace: prayer, the Eucharist, reconciliation, and the daily choice to love. These practices, and many more, deepen our relationship with Christ. They shape how we respond to life when it becomes difficult. They prepare us for our encounter with Christ.

What does this week's Gospel call us to do, then? How do we nurture our faith to be ready?

Perhaps it means putting down our phones long enough to pray or listen to someone. Perhaps it means returning to confession, making time for prayer, or forgiving someone we are holding a grudge against. Readiness does not require extreme acts, but instead grows through many ordinary acts of faithfulness.

November also brings particular memories of those who have died. Saint Paul reminds us that Christian grief carries hope because of Jesus' death and Resurrection. We can mourn while trusting that God's love reaches beyond death. That hope gives purpose to our preparation (cultivating our own oil); we are preparing to meet the One who loves us.

We do not know how much time we have. But we have now, this moment. Let us not procrastinate. Today—this moment—pray, forgive, serve, receive God's mercy.
Ask yourself this week: What have I been postponing in my relationship with God? Then take steps now to act.

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

CHAPTER 188 PETITION SIGNATURE DRIVE - WE MADE IT!

We've received another update on the Petition Signature Drive to block Chapter 188 that we have been conducting over the past few weeks. Statewide, we've collected almost 110,000 certified signatures, over twice as many as we needed, to suspend the horrific abortion law signed by Governor Healy this past August. Barring an emergency executive order from the Governor, the law will not go into effect on November 8 as planned. THANK YOU for your efforts and those of the faithful all across the state. Chapter 188 will unfortunately likely appear again on the ballot in November 2028. We will count on your votes again then to prevent it from taking effect. Thank you again for your support of this important initiative to protect the unborn!

We also encourage you to add the names of your loved ones to our Book of the Dead, which will be placed on a podium in the upper church during the month of November.

ADVENT EXPERIENCE: PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES WITH IGNATIAN CONTEMPLATION

St. Michael's is offering a five evening Advent experience of praying with scripture in the Ignatian Tradition. Please join us for as many sessions as you can, November 13 and 20 and December 4, 11, and 18 at 7pm in the Parish Center. We will be starting a week before Advent officially begins to accommodate Thanksgiving and the busy holiday season.

We ask that you contact Hannah in the parish office to register for the program: hannah@stmikes.org. This is not a formal commitment, but rather a help to let us know how many expect to attend.

The first evening on Nov 13 will be an introduction to St. Ignatius and an overview of Ignatian Spirituality and will last approximately 90 minutes. The next four sessions will be about 45 to 60 minutes in length and will be devoted to praying with the Advent scriptures for the upcoming Sundays.

This is not a Bible study series, but rather an experience of connecting with scripture through the use of contemplation and imagination. We will focus on connecting what we already know about the gospels stories with how we are affected by them.

The series will be presented by Ms. Kathy OhEigeartaigh, a trained spiritual director, who has accompanied many retreatants through the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises.

Upcoming Events at St. Michael's

"Portanto, vigiai, pois não sabeis nem o dia nem a hora."

Quantas vezes dizemos a nós mesmos: "Vou cuidar disso amanhã"? Adiamos uma conversa difícil ou prometemos a nós mesmos que a vida vai desacelerar, que poderemos rezar mais tarde, ou até dizemos algo simples como: "Vou levar o lixo para fora depois" (pois é, você acertou — acabei de fazer exatamente isso). Planejamos arranjar mais tempo para rezar: "Vou à adoração na próxima vez. Vou perdoar aquela pessoa mais tarde". Só que não hoje. É da natureza humana procrastinar.

Mas, no Evangelho deste fim de semana, Jesus nos dá um motivo para não deixar as coisas para depois: "Portanto, vigiai, pois não sabeis nem o dia nem a hora".

Uma Mensagem do Nosso Clero
Deacon Jared

Toda vez que leio esta frase, sinto um certo desconforto. E você? Gostamos de saber o que está por vir; detesto surpresas. Mantemos calendários, fazemos planos, sonhamos com o futuro e nos preparamos para ele. Contudo, não podemos agendar nosso encontro com o Senhor; não sabemos quando seremos chamados para junto d'Ele. Jesus nos convida a refletir sobre como estamos vivendo o tempo que nos foi concedido, sem saber quanto tempo ele durará.

Observe que, ao ouvir (ou reler) o Evangelho, todas as dez virgens adormecem. Até mesmo as prudentes se cansam. A diferença é que algumas trouxeram azeite suficiente para estarem prontas para o encontro com Cristo, enquanto outras, não. Permanecer acordado significa mais do que manter os olhos abertos; significa nutrir a nossa fé, de modo a estarmos preparados para encontrar Cristo, seja qual for o momento em que isso aconteça.

Nesta parábola, considere o azeite como a nossa fé, que cultivamos por meio da graça de Deus: a oração, a Eucaristia, a reconciliação e a escolha diária de amar. Essas práticas, e muitas outras, aprofundam o nosso relacionamento com Cristo. Elas moldam a forma como respondemos à vida quando ela se torna difícil. Elas nos preparam para o nosso encontro com Cristo.

O que o Evangelho desta semana nos convida a fazer, então? Como nutrir nossa fé para estarmos preparados? Talvez signifique deixar o celular de lado por tempo suficiente para rezar ou ouvir alguém. Talvez signifique voltar à confissão, reservar um tempo para a oração ou perdoar alguém por quem nutrimos algum ressentimento. Estar preparado não exige atos extremos; pelo contrário, isso se desenvolve por meio de muitos atos cotidianos de fidelidade.

Novembro também traz lembranças especiais daqueles que partiram. São Paulo nos recorda que o luto cristão carrega consigo a esperança, graças à morte e à Ressurreição de Jesus. Podemos viver o luto confiando que o amor de Deus vai além da morte. Essa esperança dá sentido à nossa preparação (cultivar o nosso próprio azeite); estamos nos preparando para encontrar Aquele que nos ama.

Não sabemos quanto tempo temos. Mas temos o agora, este momento. Não vamos adiar. Hoje — neste momento — ore, perdoe, sirva, receba a misericórdia de Deus.

Pergunte a si mesmo esta semana: o que tenho adiado no meu relacionamento com Deus? Em seguida, tome providências agora para agir.

"Portanto, vigiem, pois vocês não sabem nem o dia nem a hora."

XXXII Domingo do Tempo Comum

Hoje somos convidados à nos manter-mos em vigília à espera do Senhor nosso Deus.

"À vigilância ativa é a atitude de prontidão presente nos corações dos que amam à Deus e aguardam,ansiosos a vinda e o encontro definitivo com Ele.O Senhor,eterno esposo,não tarda à aproximar-se,bate as nossas portas convidando-nos à eterna núpcias.Por isso,definitivamente,a fé não deve ser vivida na última hora.O óleo que acende as nossas lâmpadas é a nossa vida de oração,caridade e fidelidade cotidianas.(Diocese de Apucarana)

CAMPANHA DE COLETA DE ASSINATURAS PARA A PETIÇÃO DO CAPÍTULO 188 – CONSEGUIMOS!

Recebemos mais uma atualização sobre a campanha de coleta de assinaturas — que realizamos nas últimas semanas — para barrar o "Chapter 188" (Capítulo 188). Em todo o estado, reunimos quase 110.000 assinaturas validadas — mais que o dobro do necessário — para suspender a terrível lei do aborto sancionada pela governadora Healy em agosto passado. A menos que a governadora emita um decreto executivo de emergência, a lei não entrará em vigor no dia 8 de novembro, como estava previsto. OBRIGADO pelos seus esforços e pelos de todos os fiéis em todo o estado. Infelizmente, é provável que o "Chapter 188" volte a aparecer nas urnas em novembro de 2028. Contaremos novamente com o seu voto naquela ocasião para impedir que a medida entre em vigor. Mais uma vez, obrigado pelo seu apoio a esta importante iniciativa em defesa dos nascituros!
