Recessional Hymn: Missal #214 Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Music used with permission under One License #A-612673.

Greetings, brothers and sisters. In last weekend's gospel from Matthew, we heard Jesus challenge the Jewish leadership using the Parable of the Wicked Tenants, likening them to tenants of a vineyard who reject the owner's servants, and ultimately the owner's son, killing him in an attempt to keep the vineyard for themselves. This week, we find Jesus continuing with another equally challenging parable, that of Parable of the Wedding Banquet. In it, He is again calling out the rejection of the prophets by Israel's leadership. Matthew documents these parables along with other hard encounters Jesus has with Jewish leadership in Chapters 21 and 22. They are sometimes known as the Controversy Narratives – occurring just before Jesus's arrest, because His' confrontation with those leaders reaches its apex during Holy Week.

In this weekend's parable, we see the killing of the King's servants as Israel's rejection of the prophets who were sent to preach to the people of Israel – the 'intended guests' invited to the banquet of the King.

Rather than being accepted, the prophets are often mistreated and killed. With that, the King exercises retribution on the intended guests for their rejection and instead invites all of humanity – the good and the bad, to the banquet. In this we see God's desire of salvation for all people – the universal call of the Gospel to all the world. When the guests arrive, one is found to not be wearing a wedding garment. The guest is not properly prepared to be in the holy presence of God, and is thrown out. Invitation to such a banquet requires our response – a conversion of heart, repentant of the things done against the will of God. In this way, we 'clothe ourselves in righteousness', the attire appropriate for the presence to which we are called.

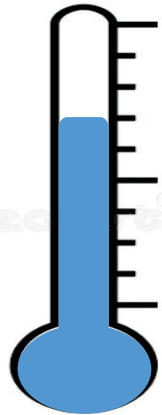

A Message from Our Clergy
Deacon Chuck

Lastly is the connection to the Eucharist. We are all familiar with the words used by the priest as he presents the Eucharist to us before Communion: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb." The Eucharist is indeed the heavenly food of which we partake in the King's wedding banquet.

At each Mass we attend, we are continually invited to the wedding banquet to partake in the feast and receive the Eucharist. It is very appropriate to ask ourselves – are we appropriately attired to participate? The 'garments' we wear are our lives of obedience to the gospel's message. Are our garments clean? As we mentioned last week, Reconciliation is the way we keep our souls in right relationship with God, and clean to receive the Eucharist. If you're in need of some cleaning, the door to this beautiful sacrament is always open. Nobody wants to be thrown outside where there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth!

Wishing you great peace –
Dcn Chuck

CHAPTER 188 ABORTION REPEAL SIGNATURE DRIVE COLLECTION

OCTOBER 24-25

Greetings, brothers and sisters in Christ. On August 10, Governor Healey signed into law Chapter 188, a bill to allow unrestricted abortions up to the point of birth. No medical necessity or medical review is required. It does not even require the procedure to be done in a hospital. We need to repeal it, and you can help! Our Knights of Columbus - Council 81, is organizing a signature drive to repeal this law.

We will be gathering signatures after the 4PM and 10AM Masses, and before the 11:30AM Brazilian Mass the weekend of October 25.

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday & Blessed Fulton Sheen

The beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen on September 24 was a great gift to the Church in the United States. While many know him best for his TV presence, books, and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "My greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church." He is the greatest National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in the history of the Church, helping raise $200 million (in today's money, $2.1 billion) to support the growth of the Church.

Under his leadership (1950-1966), World Mission Sunday became a defining moment in the life of the Church in the United States. We can surely count on his intercession for World Mission Sunday 2026, which will take place next week on October 18, as we together reflect upon, pray for and take a collection to support the missions. Blessed Fulton Sheen, pray for us!

STUFF A TRUCK

St. Vincent de Paul members have scheduled a "Stuff a Truck" event the weekend of October 31 and November 1. We will be accepting gently used clothing, coats, shoes and books. Drive up to the truck located in the St. Michael parking lot and members will take your bags from your car and put them into the truck. Tax forms will be provided. SVdP volunteers will be available at the truck from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 pm on Saturday October 31, and 9:00 am to 3:00pm on Sunday November 1st.

Brazilian & Portuguese Community Information

Saudações, irmãos e irmãs. No Evangelho de Mateus do último fim de semana, ouvimos Jesus desafiar a liderança judaica por meio da Parábola dos Lavradores Maus, comparando-os a arrendatários de uma vinha que rejeitam os servos do proprietário e, por fim, o próprio filho do proprietário, matando-o na tentativa de ficar com a vinha para si. Nesta semana, vemos Jesus prosseguir com outra parábola igualmente desafiadora: a Parábola do Banquete de Nupcias. Nela, Ele novamente aponta a rejeição dos profetas por parte da liderança de Israel. Mateus registra essas parábolas, juntamente com outros confrontos difíceis de Jesus com a liderança judaica, nos capítulos 21 e 22. Elas são por vezes chamadas de "Narrativas de Controvérsia" — ocorrendo pouco antes de sua prisão, pois o confronto de Jesus com esses líderes atinge seu auge durante a Semana Santa.

Uma Mensagem do Nosso Clero
Deacon Chuck

Na parábola deste fim de semana, vemos o assassinato dos servos do Rei como a rejeição, por parte de Israel, dos profetas enviados para pregar ao povo de Israel — os "convidados originais" chamados para o banquete do Rei. Em vez de serem acolhidos, os profetas são frequentemente maltratados e mortos. Diante disso, o Rei exerce retribuição contra os convidados originais pela rejeição e, em seu lugar, convida toda a humanidade — bons e maus — para o banquete. Nisso, vemos o desejo de Deus de salvar a todos: o chamado universal do Evangelho para o mundo inteiro. Quando os convidados chegam, um deles é encontrado sem a veste nupcial. Esse convidado não está devidamente preparado para estar na santa presença de Deus e é expulso. O convite para tal banquete exige uma resposta de nossa parte: uma conversão do coração, com arrependimento pelas ações contrárias à vontade de Deus. Dessa forma, "nos revestimos de justiça", a vestimenta apropriada para a presença à qual somos chamados.

Por fim, há a conexão com a Eucaristia. Todos estamos familiarizados com as palavras que o sacerdote profere ao nos apresentar a Eucaristia antes da Comunhão: "Eis o Cordeiro de Deus, eis aquele que tira o pecado do mundo. Felizes os convidados para a ceia do Cordeiro". A Eucaristia é, de fato, o alimento celestial do qual participamos no banquete de nupcias do Rei.

Em cada Missa a que comparecemos, somos continuamente convidados para o banquete de nupcias, para participar da festa e receber a Eucaristia. É muito oportuno nos perguntarmos: estamos devidamente trajados para participar? As "vestes" que usamos são as nossas vidas de obediência à mensagem do Evangelho. Estão limpas as nossas vestes? Como mencionamos na semana passada, a Reconciliação é o meio pelo qual mantemos nossas almas em reta relação com Deus e puras para receber a Eucaristia. Se você precisa de uma purificação, a porta para este belo sacramento está sempre aberta. Ninguém quer ser lançado para fora, onde haverá choro e ranger de dentes!

Desejando-lhes muita paz,

Diácono Chuck
