Recessional Hymn: Missal #99 All Creatures of Our God and King

Greetings, brothers and sisters. Our readings this weekend teach us a wonderful lesson about God's ability to use all of us as His instruments for His designs and plans, whether we know God and seek to follow Him in our lives, or don't know Him at all. God moves in ways that are often unbeknownst to us. Our OT prophesy from Isaiah regarding Cyrus, and our gospel passage from Matthew involving Ceasar, reveal lessons that God wants us to understand within the context of our lives on earth.

Who was Cyrus? He was the ruler of Persia, the greatest empire on earth at the time of his rule – from 559 to 530 BC. He was a pagan, worshiped pagan idols, and had no personal relationship with God. And yet, he plays an instrumental role in helping the Jewish people. We recall the Jews being taken captive by King Nebuchadnezzar around the year 600 BC and deported to Babylon. The Temple was destroyed, Jerusalem lay in ruins, and the Jews were held captive in a foreign land unable to worship. In 539 BC, it was Cyrus the Great who entered Babylon without a battle, freed thousands of Jewish exiles and allowed them to return to their homeland. He returned the sacred treasures that had been taken from the Temple and helped fund the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem. Thus, we hear in our first reading that Cyrus, who didn't even know God, was prophesized by name to be an instrument for God, about 150 years before Cyrus was even born! God used a man who didn't even know Him to accomplish His powerful work. God had a plan all along.

A Message from Our Clergy
Deacon Chuck

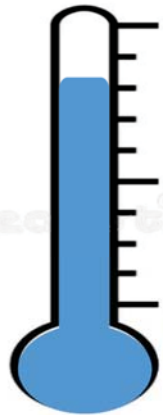

In our gospel passage from Matthew, we see Jesus tested once again by the Pharisees trying to entrap Him. He is asked if it is lawful to pay the census tax to Ceasar. If He says yes, He could be accused of siding with the Romans. If He says no, He could be perceived as stirring up violence against the Roman authority. Jesus uses the moment to reflect that authority and order on earth has its place and is proper, but there is a higher authority to which we also must respond. In using the coin with Ceasar's image, He says to give to Ceasar what is Ceasar's. Even so, it doesn't negate what remains owed to God. Ceasar's rule is temporary, limited, and will come to an end. What is owed to God is everlasting. Ceasar's earthly image is on the coin. We carry God's image within us always. We are His creation, and our enduring loyalty belongs to Him.

We may grow weary, tired and frustrated with our earthly political leaders. We can certainly perceive the harm done by selected policies and practices. As we move through our lives and faith journeys in a very imperfect world, we're continually invited witness to the truth of the gospels, and trust that God does indeed have a plan – larger than we can perceive with our earthly eyes – where believers and non-believers alike are playing roles in our salvation story. Cyrus and Ceasar had no idea how they were serving in God's designs. Many believers didn't either. Lord – help us to grow in trust of Your plans for us, and in doing so, increase our confidence in total service to You!

Wishing you great peace – Dcn Chuck

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY WEEK 3

This World Mission Sunday marks the 100th anniversary of its establishment by Pope Pius XI in 1926. This centenary is an opportunity to celebrate with renewed missionary zeal. Last year, Pope Leo XIV made an appeal to us in a personal video for World Mission Sunday. His request echoed around the world: "Please help me help missionaries everywhere."

That's what World Mission Sunday does: it helps Pope Leo care for the 1,130 missionary dioceses and territories under his supervision through the Dicastery for Evangelization. We are all called to be a part of this missionary work and we have a singular means to do so: World Mission Sunday. The second collection we take up today helps extend the Church's evangelization work to missionary lands where the Gospel is being proclaimed for the first time, as well as to places where the Church barely exists, or is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Thank you for responding to Pope Leo's call to help him help missionaries everywhere!

FEDERAL SCHOLARSHIP TAX CREDIT PROGRAM

Congress made available a Federal Scholarship Tax Credit Program which, if approved by the governor, would offer eligible families of children in both public and private schools, tutoring, after school care, transportation, books, tuition, technology, hearing equipment, speech services, and much more. The funds would be administered by several approved Scholarship Granting Organizations (SGO) of the tax donors choosing.

The Catholic Schools Office wants to ensure families are aware of this program and to encourage your support for letting the state know this is important for all students and families, regardless of where they attend school.

Please urge Governor Healey to opt into the Federal Scholarship Tax Credit Program! Leave Governor Maura Healey a message by calling (617) 725-4005.

ALL SOULS DAY OFFERINGS

Since All Souls Day falls on a Monday this year, a Mass for the souls whose names were written on this year's envelopes will be celebrated on Nov 14 at 9am

We also encourage you to add the names of your loved ones to our Book of the Dead, which will be placed on a podium in the upper church during the month of November.

Brazilian & Portuguese Community Information

Saudações, irmãos e irmãs. As leituras deste fim de semana nos ensinam uma lição maravilhosa sobre a capacidade de Deus de usar a todos nós como Seus instrumentos para Seus desígnios e planos, quer conheçamos a Deus e busquemos segui-Lo em nossas vidas, quer não O conheçamos de forma alguma. Deus age de maneiras que muitas vezes desconhecemos. A profecia do Antigo Testamento, vinda de Isaías e referente a Ciro, e a passagem do Evangelho de Mateus, envolvendo César, revelam lições que Deus quer que compreendamos no contexto de nossas vidas na Terra.

Quem foi Ciro? Ele foi o governante da Pérsia, o maior império da Terra na época de seu reinado — de 559 a 539 a.C. Ele era pagão, adorava ídolos pagãos e não tinha nenhum relacionamento pessoal com Deus. E, no entanto, ele desempenha um papel fundamental ao ajudar o povo judeu. Lembramos que os judeus foram feitos prisioneiros pelo rei Nabucodonosor por volta do ano 600 a.C. e deportados para a Babilônia. O Templo foi destruído, Jerusalém estava em ruínas e os judeus eram mantidos em cativeiro numa terra estrangeira, sem poder adorar a Deus. Em 539 a.C., foi Ciro, o Grande, quem entrou na Babilônia sem travar batalha, libertou milhares de exilados judeus e permitiu que retornassem à sua terra natal. Ele devolveu os tesouros sagrados que haviam sido levados do Templo e ajudou a financiar a reconstrução do Templo em Jerusalém. Assim, ouvimos em nossa primeira leitura que Ciro, que nem sequer conhecia a Deus, teve seu nome profetizado como um instrumento de Deus, cerca de 150 anos antes mesmo de nascer! Deus usou um homem que nem sequer O conhecia para realizar Sua obra poderosa. Deus tinha um plano desde o início.

Uma Mensagem do Nosso Clero
Deacon Chuck

Na passagem do Evangelho de Mateus, vemos Jesus sendo posto à prova mais uma vez pelos fariseus, que tentam armar-lhe uma cilada. Perguntam-lhe se é lícito pagar o imposto a César. Se Ele responder que sim, poderá ser acusado de estar do lado dos romanos; se responder que não, poderá ser visto como alguém que incita à violência contra a autoridade romana. Jesus aproveita o momento para mostrar que a autoridade e a ordem na terra têm o seu lugar e são legítimas, mas que existe uma autoridade superior à qual também devemos prestar contas. Ao utilizar a moeda que traz a imagem de César, Ele diz que se deve dar a César o que é de César. Contudo, isso não anula o que devemos a Deus. O domínio de César é temporário, limitado e terá fim; o que devemos a Deus é eterno. A imagem terrena de César está na moeda, mas nós trazemos a imagem de Deus sempre conosco. Somos criação Sua, e a nossa lealdade suprema Lhe pertence.

Podemos nos sentir exaustos, cansados e frustrados com nossos líderes políticos terrenos. Certamente percebemos os danos causados por certas políticas e práticas. Ao trilharmos nossa vida e nossa jornada de fé em um mundo tão imperfeito, somos continuamente convidados a testemunhar a verdade dos Evangelhos e a confiar que Deus realmente tem um plano — maior do que podemos enxergar com nossos olhos terrenos — no qual tanto crentes quanto descrentes desempenham papéis na história da nossa salvação. Ciro e César não faziam ideia de como estavam servindo aos desígnios de Deus. Muitos crentes também não sabiam. Senhor, ajuda-nos a crescer na confiança em Teus planos para nós e, assim, a aumentar nossa segurança em servir-Te plenamente!

Desejando-lhe muita paz – Diácono Chuck

XXIX Domingo do Tempo Comum

Hoje no Evangelho de Mt 22,21 Jesus diz aos fariseus que devemos dar à "Cesar o que é de Cesar e à Deus o que é de Deus". Nós somos a moeda de Deus. Diariamente gastamos nossa energia com os "cesares" desse mundo (dinheiro, status, obrigações, redes sociais, etc...) e por isso esquecemos de devolver à Deus o que traz a assinatura Dele: o nosso coração, o nosso tempo e o amor ao próximo. Não estamos dando à Deus o que é Deus.
