Greetings, brothers and sisters. Our readings this weekend help us to reflect on those occasions when speaking what's necessary isn't always popular. Perhaps we've encountered this in our family life. I can remember at least a few times when Joyce and I had to hand down some proper discipline and consequences to our kids for pushing the limits in problematic ways. I can certainly remember not liking it myself as a kid, and it's peculiarly reassuring to know our next generation experiences it exactly the same way! In the end, these moments demonstrate that we love our kids, that actions have consequences, and that our kids can learn from their mistakes in the safety of our own home. Now in their mid-thirties and beginning to raise children of their own, I am grateful to say they learned well and are well-prepared to pass along the same lessons!

In our first reading, Jeremiah finds he's quite unpopular himself and is being lowered into a muddy well to die. Jerusalem wants to do away with him because he was encouraging the weak King Zedekiah to surrender to the Babylonians, poised to conquer the city. This was seen as demoralizing the army and the people. Unbeknownst to the king and his leaders, God was using Babylon as an instrument of justice against Judah and surrounding nations for having violated God's covenant with them in numerous ways, including idolatry, oppression of the poor, false prophecy, reliance on political alliances instead of God, and rejection of God's messengers. Jeremiah is having done to him what was done to many other prophets of God before him: mockery, imprisonment, and death. Nonetheless, Jeremiah remains faithful to the message he was inspired to speak from God, and God provides for his rescue.

Like Jeremiah, we experience the same kind of gratitude for God's rescue of us when we have fallen into our own 'pits of destruction'. God never abandons us, even when things appear most bleak. He hears the cry of His faithful and delivers us from trouble.

In our second reading, the author is encouraging our perseverance in faith, drawing courage from Jesus' own endurance with the cross. Our lives as Christians often pit us against popular culture and worldly ideals. Our faith requires steadfastness, and acceptance that struggles are part of Christian discipleship. It's in this context that our gospel from Luke describes Jesus saying that His mission will cause division, even within families. This can be really tough, and the road hard.

Like faithful, responsible parents, we commit ourselves to raising our children the best way we can. We try to reflect that same commitment to all we meet everywhere. We can often find ourselves in conflict with those who reject God. It is certain we will find ourselves being unpopular from time to time. But – we need not be afraid! The fire of God's unconditional love and truth purifies and transforms. Consistently following Him nourishes faithfulness and perseverance and will ultimately bring us to our heavenly home!

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!

Luke 12:49-53

BLESSING OF THE BACKPACKS

As we approach the end of summer and a new school year, we will be having a blessing of the backpacks on Sunday, August 24 at the 8:00 a.m. Mass.

A backpack blessing is often held at the beginning of the school year where students bring their backpacks to be blessed. It is a way to offer encouragement, support, and prayers for students as they embark on a new academic year!

 PARISH DRIVEWAY PARKING REMINDER ***

Please remember that parking at the Parish Center and upper parking lot is reserved for handicap vehicles with placards displayed, clergy and staff. Recent observations have other parishioners using these upper parking lot spaces. Please respect those who need these handicap access spots and utilize the available spaces in our larger lower parking lot. Please also note that overflow parking is allowed at Hudson Animal Hospital, 30 High Street. Thank you sincerely for your cooperation and support!

WHO IS SAINT MONICA?

Next week the Catholic Church honors St. Monica as a powerful witness to a mother's love in wanting what is best for her child. Throughout her life she prayed for the conversion of her son, and one day all of her prayers were answered. Her son, St. Augustine, had a powerful conversion and went on to become the Bishop of Hippo and a Doctor of the Church, impacting how people learn theology and how they too can develop a spiritual life with God. The Church will celebrate St. Monica's Feast Day on Wednesday, August 27th and she is the patron saint of mothers, difficult marriages, victims of abuse and conversion of relatives.

St. Michael's Parish invites you to join in praying a novena to St. Monica. The novena will start on August 19 and we will gather in the Upper Church 6:30 p.m. for the conclusion on St. Monica's feast day, August 27.

NOVENA TO SAINT MONICA

OPENING PRAYER Lord our God, ever merciful to all who hope in you, you adorned your servant Monica with the priceless gift of reconciling her husband and children to you; you listened to her fervent and continuous prayers calling her son, Saint Augustine, from the ways of error to serve you in holiness making of him a sign in the world of the power of the grace of Christ and of the intercession of the saints on our behalf; renew, O Lord, in your Church and in our hearts the spirit you gave to Saint Monica; grant that in our thirst for true wisdom we and our loved ones may never cease to search for you, and may our hearts rest united in you, the living fountain of unending love. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF PETITION Blessed Saint Monica, please add your prayers to all those concerned and worried about their family members and friends, especially those who have turned away from Christ and His Church. Take them under your protection and give them the courage to walk in the ways of the Lord despite the temptation and false values they find in today's world. Please also, take my personal request to God for my loved ones with the same fervor and persistence with which you prayed for your own son. Amen.

FINAL PRAYER O God, you alone are good, and you never cease doing good; increase our faith, strengthen our hope, and set us on fire with your love, so that we may serve you more faithfully day by day, using the same gifts you have given us for the glory of your name. Amen.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Is the Holy Spirit calling you to become Catholic?

If you are an adult who has not received the Sacrament of Baptism, First Holy Communion, or Confirmation, we invite you to register with our Order of Christian Initiation for Adults Program (OCIA). To learn more, contact Lori Morton in the parish office.

COVER ARTWORK

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary is celebrated as a memorial on August 22. This feast day was established by Pope Pius XII in 1954. It is observed eight days after the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary, which is on August 15. The purpose of the feast is to honor Mary's role as Queen of Heaven and Earth, recognizing her close association with Jesus and her powerful intercession on behalf of humanity.

WHAT IS A FEAST DAY?

A feast day is a day to remember and celebrate important figures or events related to the faith. These days can be dedicated to saints, or to events in the life of Jesus, the Virgin Mary, or the apostles. Feast days are a way for the church to honor these figures and events, and for Catholics to deepen their understanding of their faith. Feast days can be solemnities, feasts, or memorials, each with varying levels of liturgical importance. A solemnity is the highest rank of liturgical celebration, commemorating a significant mystery of faith or an important event in the life of Jesus, Mary, or a saint. On August 15 we celebrated the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Solemnity of the Assumption reminds us of the unique role that Mary served in the process of our salvation. Although she was without sin, we have the possibility of receiving God's forgiveness for our sins through Christ. Her entry into Heaven prefigures our own hope of experiencing the same eternal life.

Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary encourages prospective candidates between 30 and 60 years to discern a possible vocation to Priesthood.

We host "First Friday Visits" where men discerning the priesthood are invited to join the Seminary community for prayer, fellowship, and dinner. These brief and informal evenings begin at 5:00 PM and conclude by 7:30 PM. During their visit here, the men will join the community for Holy Hour and Evening Prayer, followed by dinner with the seminarians and an opportunity to tour the Seminary. If a candidate wishes to speak with a priest faculty member during his visit, we will arrange for that as well. There is also the option to attend virtually via the Chapel live-stream link of evening prayer followed by a Zoom meeting. The Zoom meeting link is available once registered.
