

Augsburg Lutheran Church Welcome Statement

“At Augsburg, we value you and your story.

We believe God loves all of us, no matter what.

We welcome you to our congregation where we encounter the fullness of God’s creation. As a community of reconciliation and boundless love, we strive to unite people. We celebrate what makes you unique.

At Augsburg, we explore our faith journeys together as we ask questions, share our doubts, and strengthen our belief that God’s abundant grace is extended to all.

We welcome people of all races, ethnicities, sexual orientations, gender identities, classes, life circumstances, nationalities, and disabilities (whether cognitive, sensory, mental or physical).

Join us as we work to live out the greatest commandment from Jesus to love one another. Augsburg trusts the Holy Spirit to guide us as we engage the community around us. We seek equity across race, abilities, class, sexual and gender identity, and unity in our world.

We offer hospitality to all as we live together in God’s love.”
