

Once a prison for Craven District's felons and sheep rustlers, there is now little evidence of its former incarnation, and the locals these days are only too pleased to dine at Le Caveau while soaking up the atmosphere of this 16th century building, complete with barrel vaulted ceilings, original beams and exposed stonework.

Since taking over the restaurant in 2014 new owners Mark and Esther Byron have strived to improve on the high standards set by Le Caveau's previous owners over the last 60 years.

Our range of wines have been specially selected to complement the dishes created by Mark, also the Head Chef who spends a great deal of time in the kitchen creating exciting new dishes and putting fresh twists on French classics.

We hope you enjoy our hand-picked selection.
