AI and Concept Development

AI can brainstorm plotlines, character profiles, based on prompts or genre preferences. It can also assist in building fictional worlds, including cultural settings, historical backdrops, or spiritual dimensions.

To analyse if your concept matches its intended audience, tools like ScriptBook and Studiovity analyze story elements to predict audience engagement and box office potential. It can also assist in tailoring your concept to resonate with specific demographics or platforms.

Aiye-ko-oto's 'The Noble Warrior' Returns with More Dance, Drama, and Drums!

This July, Lagos welcomes the return of The Noble Warrior (Eni Ogun)—a stirring Black musical theatre piece honoring Africa's first Nobel Laureate in Literature, Professor Wole Soyinka. Written and produced by Nigerian-American playwright Cash Onadele (Aiye-ko-oto), reimagined edition ups the ante with intensified drumming, dancing, and dramatic flair.

Running July 11–13 at the historic Glover Memorial Hall, Lagos Island, the production features two daily shows: Matinee at 3PM and Champagne at 6PM. Tickets are available at syndk8ml.com.

Backed by the Lagos State Ministry of Tourism and CBAAC, and led artistically by Segun Adelfila, the show builds on its acclaimed 2024 run.

Some traditions are so powerful that they must be preserved at all cost, not minding who's head is severed! Get ready for the thrill! July 18th!
