The Christmas Spirit Film Festival is an international showcase dedicated to celebrating excellence in Christmas-themed and faith-inspired storytelling. Curated and produced by Rhoda Wilson Productions, the festival provides a distinguished platform for filmmakers whose work reflects the values of hope, compassion, and the enduring spirit of the season.

The festival presents a curated selection of films, music, and creative works that illuminate the themes of joy, generosity, and human connection. By bringing together filmmakers, industry professionals, and diverse audiences, the Christmas Spirit Film Festival fosters meaningful dialogue, artistic collaboration, and a shared appreciation for uplifting narratives.

Committed to championing stories that inspire and unite, the festival serves as both a creative hub and a cultural celebration—honouring the power of cinema to bring light into communities around the world. Filmmakers are invited to learn more or submit their work via FilmFreeway:

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT FILM FESTIVAL — DATES & FESTIVAL EXPERIENCE

The Christmas Spirit Film Festival kicks off official from 26-29 November 2026, inviting everyone to experience four days of inspiring films, meaningful stories, and the joy of the season.

Hosted at the Midlands Arts Centre in Birmingham, the festival brings together audiences, families, creatives, and film lovers for a celebration of Christmas through cinema. Expect uplifting premieres, international screenings, filmmaker conversations, creative workshops, live moments of music and storytelling, and a warm community atmosphere that captures the heart of the season.

Whether you come to discover new films, connect with others, or simply enjoy the magic of Christmas on screen, the festival offers something special for every guest.

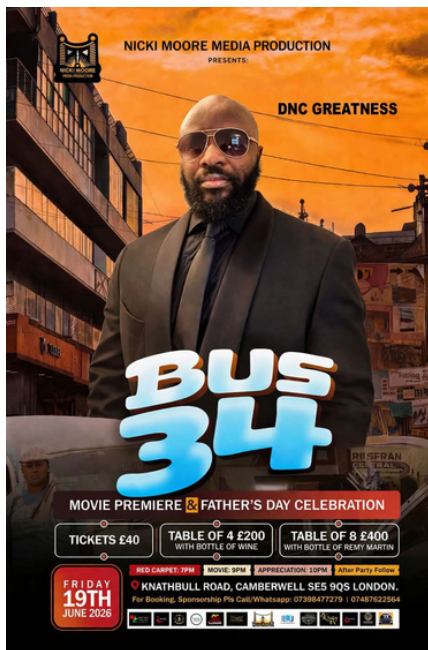

Save the dates. Bring your loved ones. Come experience the spirit.

TOP NEWS

Bus 34. A gripping urban drama where destiny, survival, and unexpected encounters unfold on the streets of London.

Available on YouTube

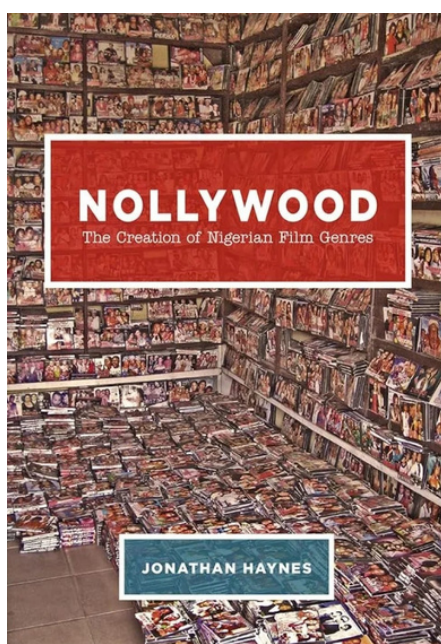

Trailer: https://youtu.be/H1xwN_1TzGs

The movie is centred around A single mother riddled with debt who had to find her way in the world through work with her young daughter supporting her on the way to self-discovery and self-worth. She becomes entangled with people that take advantage of her, but it takes an unexpected turn and her luck changes. This story is narrated by the young daughter, looking back at the struggles of her mother and how she overcame adversity to create a better life for herself and her family. This movie is based on partly true events.

My Father's Shadow, directorial debut by @akinoladaviesjr was the first Nigerian feature in the Official Selection of the @Festivaldecannes and was awarded a prestigious Caméra d'Or Special Mention. The film follows two young brothers and their estranged father on a one-day journey across Lagos in 1993. It was co-produced by @element_pictures and @wearefatherland.
