

Let's Talk about

- Sailing - The Grand Tour -

David Innes-Wilkin, B.Arch, MCD, retired architect

David Innes-Wilkin, retired architect-planner will illustrate his sailing adventures exploring the world of the Italian Renaissance tours of the 18th century.

Blood, Sex and Beauty featured in the stories of the Grand Tour and the experiences shaped English architecture through Georgian times. David has spent a lifetime since his teenage years exploring the architectural treasures of Italian 15th-century and the Classical eras that shaped them. Sailing the coasts of Italy and Greece gave access to the famous sites and to some of the astonishing events that shaped them. An intriguing talk - waiting to be heard!
