QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

If I am honest with myself, what part of Jesus' message offends me?

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRIEST:

"What did you go out into the desert to see?" This Third Sunday of Advent invites us to live in joy; it is called Gaudete Sunday, which means "rejoicing." It awakens a feeling of closeness, of being on the verge of celebrating the greatest event. The color rose is used in the priest's vestments at Mass and is associated with beauty and serene joy. And who better than John the Baptist, the greatest among those born of women, is presented this Sunday, inviting us to go with Jesus and ask him: "Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?" Let us seek the answer with Jesus, and He will tell us who He is. Let us find our joy in Jesus; He is the hope of all, in a world that increasingly seeks to distance itself from the supreme beauty of encountering Him.

Fr. J. Fernando Bonilla Sánchez, MSP

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL SACERDOTE:

"¿Qué fueron ustedes a ver en el desierto?" Este III domingo de Adviento nos invita a vivir en alegría, es el llamado Domingo del "Gaudete" que significa "regocijo". Y despierta una sensación de cercanía, de que estamos a punto de celebrar el más grande acontecimiento. El color rosa se utiliza en los ornamentos del sacerdote en la Misa y se asocia a la belleza y a la serena alegría. Y quién más sino Juan Bautista, el más grande entre los hijos de una mujer, es presentado este domingo invitándonos a ir con Jesús y preguntarle: "¿Eres tú el que ha de venir o tenemos que esperar a otro?". Busquemos la respuesta con Jesús y Él nos dirá quién es Él. Encontremos nuestra alegría en Jesús, Él es la Esperanza de todos, en un mundo que cada vez más se quiere alejar de la belleza suprema de encontrarse con Él.

P. J. Fernando Bonilla Sánchez, MSP

14 DE DICIEMBRE DE 2025 –*TERCER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO*INTRODUCCIÓN A LA LITURGIA DEL DÍA

El domingo de Gaudete nos alegramos, porque sabemos que el Señor está cerca. Con ojos de fe, podemos percibir su presencia incluso mientras nos preparamos para la celebración de su llegada a nosotros como un recién nacido. Con ojos de fe, podemos ver su llegada así como al profeta Isaías o al profeta del Nuevo Testamento Juan el Bautista, quienes prepararon a su pueblo para la presencia transformadora de Dios. Con ojos de fe, gloriémonos en la presencia de Jesús aquí y ahora: en la palabra de Dios, en la Eucaristía y en quienes nos rodean.

DECEMBER 14, 2025 –*THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT*Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day

On Gaudete Sunday we rejoice, for we know that the Lord is near. With eyes of faith, we can sense His presence even as we prepare for the celebration of His coming to us as a newborn infant. With eyes of faith, we can see His coming as well as the prophet Isaiah or the New Testament prophet John the Baptist, who each prepared his people for God's transformative presence. With eyes of faith, let us glory in Jesus' presence right here, right now: in God's word, in the Eucharist, and in those around us.

Altar servers, Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers:
Please sign up in the gathering space if you can help with the Christmas and Solemnity of Mary Masses.

JOIN US DECEMBER 16-23, 7:00 P.M. LAS POSADAS: A MEXICAN CHRISTMAS TRADITION

The story of Christ's birth has been told and retold so many times it could have lost its luster generations ago. But it hasn't – not even close. If anything, in this world of war, famine and natural disasters, holding on to something as simple and as singularly important as the Nativity story is a necessity to our faith. And perhaps nowhere on earth is the Nativity story told with more flourish and faith-based exuberance than in the annual celebration of Las Posadas.

Each evening will begin with Mass at 7:00 p.m., followed by a festive celebration.

Schedule of locations:

December 16 and 17 – St. Agnes

December 18 – St. Mary Magdalene

December 19 and 20 – St. Agnes

December 21 – St. Stephan the Martyr

December 22 and 23 – St. Agnes

THE GRACES THAT COME WITH HAVING A MASS SAID FOR A SPECIAL INTENTION ARE IMMEASURABLE.

Since the Catholic Mass is the most powerful form of prayer, it is a common practice to have it offered for a specific intention. Having a Mass said for someone is a powerful way to intercede or pray for them on their behalf. Mass intentions can be requested on behalf of another living person – for example, the healing of someone who is sick or to commemorate a wedding anniversary. However, Mass intentions are most commonly offered in remembrance of a person who has died.

We offer Masses for our deceased loved ones to aid them in their journeys to heaven. We pray with hope that the graces imparted by the Mass usher them further towards eternity with God.

The Mass unites the Church on earth to the Church in heaven. The intentions of the Mass are lifted by the Body of Christ in its entirety.

These graces are especially important for the dead, as they can no longer pray for themselves. Pope Francis said that offering the celebration of the Eucharist for the dead "is the best spiritual help that we can give to their souls, particularly to the most abandoned ones."

We are currently scheduling Mass Intentions for 2026. We are most in need of intentions for the weekday Masses. You can request a Mass by email (acarrier@saintmarymag.org), on our website (stmarymagdalenecolumbus.org) or by calling the Parish Office. The suggested stipend for a Mass intention is $10.00.
