3 DE AGOSTO DE 2025 – DECIMOCTAVO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

INTRODUCCIÓN A LA LITURGIA DEL DÍA

“No puedes llevarlo contigo”. Es un recordatorio de que la riqueza que acumulamos en este mundo no se transfiere al siguiente. En nuestra sociedad secular, esto Decir a menudo implica que debes gastar tu riqueza ahora mientras puedas disfrutarla, pero nuestra fe exige que veamos la riqueza de manera diferente. Acumular riqueza material es irrelevante para nuestra vocación como discípulos y puede distraernos de lo que es verdaderamente importante. Elevemos nuestros corazones y elevemos nuestras voces a Dios, que es la fuente de nuestra verdadera riqueza.

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL SACERDOTE:

La vida se disfruta incluso en las situaciones más adversas. No perdamos el tiempo sin disfrutar de lo que tenemos, sea poco o mucho. Lo más valioso que tenemos es la vida, y eso es más que suficiente para disfrutar y vivir con un corazón agradecido. Por supuesto, hay situaciones que nos impiden disfrutar plenamente, como la enfermedad o la pérdida de un ser querido, o quizás en medio de una carencia, ya sea económica o familiar, pero incluso en medio de malos momentos debemos tratar de disfrutar y ser agradecidos. Este esfuerzo nos dará la tranquilidad para afrontar esos malos momentos. El fruto de un corazón agradecido es la alegría, y esta última nos llevará a saber disfrutar cada momento. Vivamos siempre agradecidos y disfrutemos de lo que tenemos, sea poco o mucho. No esperemos a tener lo que tanto buscamos disfrutar, al contrario, disfrutemos del camino que te lleva a lograr lo que deseas, y siempre sin perder de vista a Dios.

Fr. J. Fernando Bonilla Sánchez, MSP

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD – AUGUST 6

The Transfiguration of Jesus is one of the key events in Jesus' life. He took three apostles – Peter, James, and John – up to a high mountain to pray. As they were praying, His appearance changed, and His clothes became “dazzling white.” At that point, Moses and Elijah appeared and spoke to the Lord about His upcoming death. A cloud overshadowed the group, and God the Father's voice came from the cloud saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!”

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, “Christ's Transfiguration aims at strengthening the apostles' faith in anticipation of His Passion: the ascent on to the ‘high mountain’ prepares for the ascent to Calvary. Christ, Head of the Church, manifests what His Body contains and radiates in the sacraments: ‘the hope of glory’” (CCC 568).

THE POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTION (AUGUST):

For mutual coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

THE GRACES THAT COME WITH HAVING A MASS SAID FOR A SPECIAL INTENTION ARE IMMEASURABLE.

Since the Catholic Mass is the most powerful form of prayer, it is a common practice to have it offered for a specific intention. Having a Mass said for someone is a powerful way to intercede or pray for them on their behalf. Mass Intentions can be requested on behalf of another living person – for example, the healing of someone who is sick or to commemorate a wedding anniversary. However, Mass Intentions are most commonly offered in remembrance of a person who has died.

We offer Masses for our deceased loved ones to aid them in their journeys to heaven. We pray with hope that the graces imparted by the Mass usher them further toward eternity with God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: “From the beginning, the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God” (CCC 1032).

The Mass unites the Church on earth to the Church in heaven. The intentions of the Mass are lifted by the Body of Christ in its entirety.

These graces are especially important for the dead, as they can no longer pray for themselves. Pope Francis said that offering the celebration of the Eucharist for the dead “is the best spiritual help that we can give to their souls, particularly to the most abandoned ones.”

We are currently scheduling Masses for the remainder of 2025. You can request a Mass by email at acarrier@saintmarymag.org, on our website at stmarymagdalenecolumbus.org or by calling the Parish Office. The suggested stipend for a Mass intention is $10.00.

AUGUST 3, 2025 –
EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

“You can’t take it with you.” It’s a reminder that the wealth we accumulate in this world does not transfer to the next. In our secular society, this saying often implies that you should spend your wealth now while you can enjoy it, but our faith demands that we look at wealth differently. Building up material wealth is irrelevant to our vocation as disciples and can distract us from what is truly important. Let us lift our hearts and raise our voices to God, who is the source of our true wealth.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRIEST:
Life is enjoyed even in the most adverse situations. Let us not waste time without enjoying what we have, be it little or much. The most valuable thing we have is life, and that is more than enough to enjoy and live with a grateful heart. Of course, there are situations that prevent us from fully enjoying, such as illness or the loss of a loved one, or perhaps in the midst of a lack, whether economic or family, but even in the midst of bad times we must try to enjoy and be grateful. This effort will give us the peace of mind to face those bad times. The fruit of a grateful heart is joy, and the latter will lead us to know how to enjoy every moment. Let us always live grateful and enjoy what we have, be it little or much. Let us not wait to have what we so much seek to enjoy; on the contrary, let us enjoy the path that leads us to achieve what we desire, and always without losing sight of God.

Fr. J. Fernando Bonilla Sánchez, MSP
