PREGUNTA DE LA SEMANA:

¿Cuándo me he dado cuenta demasiado tarde de que debería haber ejercido algo de humildad? ¿Qué he aprendido al ejercer la humildad?

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL SACERDOTE:

Se dice que nunca es tarde para hacer las cosas bien y buscar a Dios, salvo cuando llega la muerte; mientras hay vida hay esperanza. Esto es cierto, tan cierto como que no sabemos cuándo llegará el momento de partir. Por eso siempre será un riesgo el que avancen los días y no hay cambios importantes en nuestra vida. Volteemos a ver el Evangelio y empecemos un camino de conversión mientras podamos hacerlo. La vida eterna se prepara desde ahora; esperar otro momento para hacerlo provocará llegar tarde o tal vez hasta jamás llegar a ella. Ahora tenemos la oportunidad de hacerlo, así es que a empezar desde hoy y mañana estará segura la eternidad para nosotros y todos los que inicien el camino hacia ella. Nuestro esfuerzo está en proporción de lo que buscamos. Queremos la vida eterna, a sudar hoy trabajando por ella, sino mañana lloraremos porque somos echados fuera.

VIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

INTRODUCCIÓN A LA LITURGIA DEL DÍA

Este fin de semana reconocemos y honramos a todos los que trabajan. Hay una dignidad en el trabajo sin importar cuán humilde pueda parecer la tarea o el trabajo o si es remunerado o no, y todos los que trabajan o buscan trabajo son celebrados en el Día del Trabajo. Al reunirnos hoy alrededor de la mesa del Señor, escuchamos a Jesús enseñar a los invitados también reunidos alrededor de una mesa de banquete sobre la importancia de la humildad. Que nos acerquemos tanto a nuestro trabajo como a la mesa eucarística con humildad, reconociendo la gracia de Dios al hacernos dignos de ambos.

SANTA TERESA DE CALCUTA

Santa del día: 5 de septiembre

Patrona de la Jornada Mundial de la Juventud y de las Misioneras de la Caridad

Nacida de padres albaneses en lo que hoy es Skopje, Macedonia, Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu era la menor de los tres hijos que sobrevivieron. Durante sus años en la escuela pública, Agnes participó en una cofradía católica y mostró un gran interés por las misiones en el extranjero. A los 18 años, ingresó en las Hermanas de Loreto de Dublín. Al año siguiente fue enviada al noviciado de Loreto en Darjeeling, India. Allí eligió el nombre de Teresa y se preparó para una vida de servicio. Fue asignada a una escuela secundaria para niñas en Calcuta, donde enseñó historia y geografía a las hijas de los ricos. Pero no podía escapar de la realidad que la rodeaba: la pobreza, el sufrimiento, el abrumador número de personas indigentes.

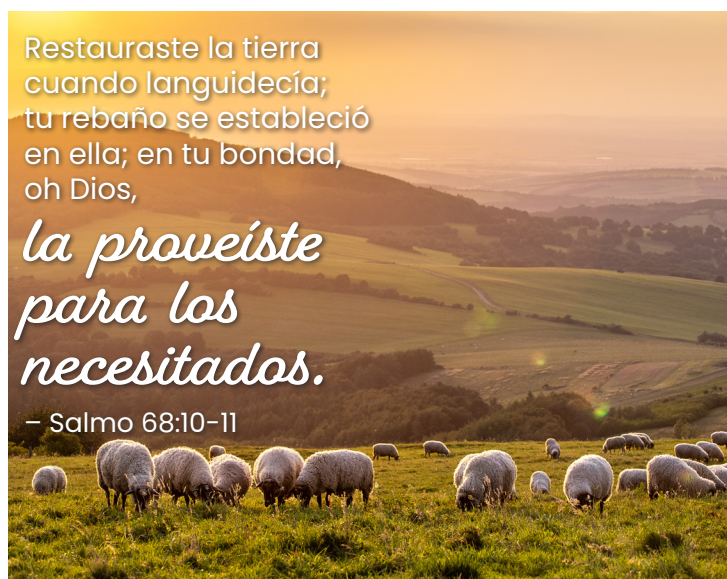

En 1946, mientras viajaba en tren a Darjeeling para hacer un retiro, la hermana Teresa escuchó lo que más tarde describió como "una llamada dentro de otra llamada." El mensaje era claro. Debía abandonar el convento y ayudar a los pobres viviendo entre ellos.

Regresó a Calcuta, donde vivió en los barrios marginales y abrió una escuela para niños pobres. Vestida con un sari blanco y sandalias, la vestimenta habitual de una mujer india, pronto comenzó a conocer a sus vecinos, especialmente a los pobres y enfermos, y a conocer sus necesidades a través de sus visitas.

En 1952, la ciudad de Calcuta le dio a la Madre Teresa un antiguo albergue, que se convirtió en un hogar para los moribundos y los indigentes. A medida que la orden se expandía, también se ofrecían servicios a huérfanos, niños abandonados, alcohólicos, ancianos y personas sin hogar.

Durante las siguientes cuatro décadas, la Madre Teresa trabajó incansablemente en favor de los pobres. Recorrió el mundo pidiendo apoyo e invitando a otros a ver el rostro de Jesús en los más pobres entre los pobres. En 1979, le fue otorgado el Premio Nobel de la Paz. El 5 de septiembre de 1997, Dios la llamó a su lado. La beata Teresa fue canonizada por el papa Francisco el 4 de septiembre de 2017.

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA

Saint of the Day: September 5

Patron Saint of World Youth Day and The Missionaries of Charity

Born to Albanian parents in what is now Skopje, Macedonia, Gonxha (Agnes) Bojaxhiu was the youngest of the three children who survived. During her years in public school, Agnes participated in a Catholic sodality and showed a strong interest in the foreign missions. At age 18, she entered the Loreto Sisters of Dublin. The following year she was sent to the Loreto novitiate in Darjeeling, India. There she chose the name Teresa and prepared for a life of service. She was assigned to a high school for girls in Calcutta, where she taught history and geography to the daughters of the wealthy. But she could not escape the realities around her – the poverty, the suffering, the overwhelming numbers of destitute people.

In 1946, while riding a train to Darjeeling to make a retreat, Sister Teresa heard what she later explained as "a call within a call. The message was clear. I was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them."

She returned to Calcutta, where she lived in the slums and opened a school for poor children. Dressed in a white sari and sandals – the ordinary dress of an Indian woman – she soon began getting to know her neighbors – especially the poor and sick – and getting to know their needs through visits.

In 1952, the city of Calcutta gave Mother Teresa a former hostel, which became a home for the dying and the destitute. As the order expanded, services were also offered to orphans, abandoned children, alcoholics, the aging, and street people. For the next four decades, Mother Teresa worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor. She crisscrossed the globe pleading for support and inviting others to see the face of Jesus in the poorest of the poor. In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. On September 5, 1997, God called her home. Blessed Teresa was canonized by Pope Francis on September 4, 2016.

AUGUST 31, 2025 – TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

This weekend, we recognize and honor all those who work. There is a dignity in work no matter how humble the task or job may seem or whether it is paid or not, and all who work or who are looking for work are celebrated on Labor Day. As we gather today around the table of the Lord, we hear Jesus teach guests also gathered around a banquet table of the importance of humility. May we approach both our work and the Eucharistic table with humility, recognizing God's grace in making us worthy of both.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRIEST:

It is said that it is never too late to do things right and seek God, except when death comes; as long as there is life, there is hope. This is true, as true as the fact that we never know when the time will come to depart. That is why it will always be a risk for the days to pass without major changes in our lives. Let us turn to the Gospel and begin a path of conversion while we still can. Eternal life is being prepared now; waiting another moment to do so will mean arriving too late, or perhaps never reaching it at all. Now we have the opportunity to do so, so let us begin today, and tomorrow eternity will be assured for us and all who begin the journey toward it. Our effort is in proportion to what we seek. We want eternal life; let us sweat today working for it, otherwise tomorrow we will weep because we are cast out.
