7 DE SEPTIEMBRE DE 2025 – VIGÉSIMO TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

INTRODUCCIÓN A LA LITURGIA DEL DÍA

Durante los últimos dos mil años, a Jesús se le han dado muchos títulos, desde Pan de Vida hasta Nuestro Salvador. Uno de sus primeros títulos, que se remonta a cuando se puso de pie por primera vez y proclamó la palabra de Dios en la sinagoga, es Rabino o Maestro. Qué apropiado enfocarse en ese título en este primer domingo de septiembre, una época del año en la que millones de jóvenes están regresando a la escuela. Hoy escuchamos a Jesús enseñar a las multitudes lo que significa ser un discípulo. Que él nos enseñe y nos reunamos en su nombre.

PREGUNTA DE LA SEMANA:

¿Cómo me siento desafiado por las demandas de discipulado de Jesús?

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL SACERDOTE:

¿Cuál es el lugar que debemos ocupar como seres humanos y personas? No debe ser un lugar más alto de lo que somos, pero tampoco más bajo. El lugar que debemos ocupar no está de acuerdo a lo que otros nos quieran ubicar, sino el lugar que Dios nos ha dado. Nuestro lugar está de acuerdo a esa dignidad, como lo mejor de la creación, creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Nadie debe determinar nuestra posición en la escala de la vida o la sociedad. No busquemos más de lo que somos ni más bajo. Nadie en dignidad debe estar por encima de nadie. Si es que pensamos que somos más dignos o más grandes que alguien entonces no hemos entendido el evangelio. Dios nos llama a lugares más dignos, más cerca de Él si es que el pecado propio o de alguien más nos ha ubicado en el lugar incorrecto.

SEPTEMBER 7, 2025 – TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE DAY

Over the last two thousand years, Jesus has been given many titles, from Bread of Life to Our Savior. One of His first titles, going back to when He first stood and proclaimed God's Word in the synagogue, is Rabbi, or Teacher. How appropriate to focus on that title on this first Sunday of September, a time of year when millions of young people are returning to school. Today, we hear Jesus teach the crowds what it means to be a disciple. May He teach us as well as we gather together in His name.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

How do I feel challenged by Jesus' demands of discipleship?

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRIEST:

What is the place we should occupy as human beings and people? It should not be a place higher than we are, but not lower either. The place we should occupy is not according to where others want to place us, but the place God has given us. Our place is in accordance with that dignity, as the best of creation, created in the image and likeness of God. No one should determine our position on the scale of life or society. Let us not seek higher or lower than we are. No one should be above anyone else in dignity. If we think we are more worthy or greater than someone else, then we have not understood the Gospel. God calls us to more worthy places, closer to Him if our own sin or that of someone else has placed us in the wrong place.

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY: SEPTEMBER 8

The Church observes the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, commemorating her birth as a pivotal moment in the history of redemption. Mary's purpose was to become the mother of the world's Savior, the spiritual mother of all people, and the holiest of God's creations. We can see every human birth as a call for new hope in the world. The love of two human beings has joined with God in His creative work. The loving parents have shown hope in a world filled with travail. The new child has the potential to be a channel of God's love and peace to the world. This is all true in a magnificent way in Mary. If Jesus is the perfect expression of God's love, Mary is the foreshadowing of that love. If Jesus has brought the fullness of salvation, Mary is its dawning. Birthday celebrations bring happiness to the celebrant as well as to family and friends. Next to the birth of Jesus, Mary's birth offers the greatest possible happiness to the world. Each time we celebrate her birth, we can confidently hope for an increase of peace in our hearts and in the world at large.
