From the Desk of Fr. Eric Zimmer....

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday I look forward to meeting more and more of you at the welcome brunch. People have been very welcoming to me and I always delight in meeting new people.

On Sunday we celebrate the 5th Sunday in ordinary time. On the 3rd, Saturday, we remember St. Blaise, bishop and martyr from the early 4th century in today's Turkey. We all know him from the legends of his healing patients suffering from objects stuck in the throat—and we will have the blessing of throats after all the liturgies this weekend. What you may not know is that in his martyrdom the governor of Cappadocia and Lesser Armenia had Blaise torn with iron combs before his beheading, leading him to be called the patron of wool combers and the wool trade,

Looking forward, we begin our Lenten observance on February 14 (and for some, perhaps the celebration of Mardi Gras just beforehand).

Prayers for your coming week. I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 Fr. Eric Zimmer
