This month, we are featuring WABA member ALCIVIA.

ALCIVIA is a leading, member-owned agricultural and energy cooperative located in Wisconsin and serving customers in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, and Iowa. They provide expertise, service, and products in the areas of agronomy, animal nutrition, energy, and grain, and have a full portfolio of options for competitive operating loans and input financing.

ALCIVIA is focused on advancing its customers through innovative and responsible solutions. Through its engaged employees, the company is committed to providing best-in-class services and products to help drive its members' long-term success. Their governing principles are financial responsibility, integrity, and safety, and are driven by a passion for excellence toward a future without boundaries.

Formed in 2021, ALCIVIA was created through the merger of Countryside Cooperative and Landmark Services Cooperative, building on a legacy of successful mergers and acquisitions. As a local, member-owned cooperative, the board of directors and management team of ALCIVIA understand that their decisions and actions directly impact their member owners and customers. They know the strength of the cooperative is rooted in the support of their membership, and they always strive for mutual success.

ALCIVIA's continued investments in their team, facilities, operations, and safety, and their focus on their mission, vision, and values, are for their members and customers and their immediate and long-term success.

Interim CEO Rodney Balvitsch shared, "Being a member of the Wisconsin Agribusiness Association provides many advantages for our co-op. It allows us to stay up to date on industry changes, serves as our voice for Wisconsin ag policy, and helps us connect with other cooperatives and ag businesses. WABA really looks out for the people who keep Wisconsin agriculture moving, and we're proud to be in that circle."
