

LYON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE MEDIA RELEASE

- On Monday, September 21, 2026, just after 3pm, Sheriff Brent White responded to a two-vehicle collision, with injuries on I-24 East bound at the 34-mile marker. The investigation revealed 2024 Nissan Sentra, driven by Joshua T. Sabala (34) of O'Fallon, MO was east, when it passed a vehicle in the right hand (slow) lane of I-24. Sabala's vehicle then left its lane of travel and sideswiped a 2019 Honda Odyssey, driven by Alexis A. Tolley (28) of Marion, which was also East bound and in the left lane (passing) of travel. Both vehicles ended up on the emergency strip. Marshall County EMS transported Tolley to a Paducah hospital for evaluation of her injuries. Sabala was not injured in the collision. The Kuttawa Fire Department and Marshall County EMS assisted Sheriff White at the scene.
- On Tuesday, September 22, 2026, around 11am, Sheriff Brent White answered a family, walk-in complaint at the Sheriff's Office. While trying to assist the family with this complaint, a female with the party became upset and started screaming and cursing. She was told she was detained and while trying to restrain her, she physically resisted arrest and began kicking and hitting law enforcement personnel in the office before damaging property on the walls and two desks. After being restrained, Lyon County EMS was called to evaluate the female, after she began hitting her head on a door. Upon arrival of EMS, she refused to allow them to examine her. The female was identified as Liberty A. Jones (21) of Eddyville. She was arrested and charged with Disorderly Conduct-2nd Degree, Assault-3rd Degree (2 counts), Criminal Mischief-2nd Degree, and Resisting Arrest. Jones was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
- On Tuesday, September 22, 2026, just around 5:30pm, Deputies Kip Darnell and Bobby Beeler responded to an intoxicated person complaint on Days Inn Drive in Kuttawa. They located a truck driver outside of his vehicle who was so intoxicated from alcoholic beverages, he could hardly stand up. Following a brief investigation, he was arrested and identified as Ryan P. Molt (41) of Lincoln, Nebraska. Molt was charged with Alcohol Intoxication in a Public Place-1st Offense. He was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.

- On Tuesday, September 22, 2026, just before 8:30pm, Deputies Bobby Beeler and Kip Darnell responded to a suspicious person complaint on the US 62 Cumberland River bridge. Deputy Beeler located and identified the man as Casey M. Hughes (31) of Jackson, Mississippi. Hughes was found to be a fugitive from Warren County for Failure to Appear in Warren District Court. Hughes was arrested and later lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
- On Tuesday, September 22, 2026, at 11pm, Deputies Bobby Beeler and Kip Darnell conducted a traffic stop near Days Inn Drive in Kuttawa. The investigation revealed the 2005 Toyota Camry was driven by Mackenzie Redd (35) of Kuttawa. Redd has not possessed a driver's license since 2011 and has had eleven (11) prior incidents for driving on a suspended license. Redd was later arrested and charged with Rear License Plate Not Illuminated and Operating on a Suspended or Revoked Operator's License. A passenger in Redd's vehicle, Tonya M. Breau (65) of Kuttawa, was cited to court for Possession of Marijuana. Redd was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
- On Thursday, September 24, 2026, around 5:45am, Chief Deputy Sam Adams was dispatched to a single-vehicle, injury collision on US 62 West near Kuttawa. His investigation revealed a 2015 Ford F450, driven by Adam Board (22) of Paducah was East bound on US 62 when his right passenger front tire left the roadway. The driver lost control and started sliding before overcorrecting and impacting a ditch which resulted in the truck overturning. Board was transported by Lyon County EMS to an area hospital for evaluation of his injuries. The Kuttawa Fire Department, Eddyville Fire Department, Lyon County EMS, and KYTC Department of Highways assisted Chief Deputy Adams at the scene.
- On Thursday, September 24, 2026, around 10pm, Deputies Luke Fraley and Bradley Dunning were assisting Kentucky State Police with a traffic safety checkpoint on US 62 when they encountered a 2019 Chevrolet Malibu. A probable cause search of this vehicle resulted in the discovery of Methamphetamine, Marijuana, and drug paraphernalia. The driver, identified as Marissa L. Perine (24) of New Florence, Missouri, was cited to court for Possession of Marijuana and Drug Paraphernalia Possession.

A passenger, identified as Andrea L. Mudd (45) of Warrenton, Missouri, was arrested by Deputy Fraley and charged with Possession of Controlled Substance-1st Degree, 1st Offense (Methamphetamine) and Drug Paraphernalia Possession. Mudd was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.

- On Friday, September 25, 2026, around 7:44am, Chief Deputy Sam Adams was dispatched to a two-vehicle collision in Eddyville. His investigation revealed a 2007 Ford F750, with a trailer in tow, owned by Youngblood Excavating in Mayfield, was parked by its driver in the parking lot of Fivestar. A second vehicle, a 2011 Chevrolet Silverado, owned by the City of Eddyville, was also parked by its driver in the parking lot of Fivestar. While both operators were inside the store, the 2007 Ford's parking brake failed and it, along with its trailer in tow, started rolling through the parking lot until it collided with the 2011 Chevrolet Silverado. No injuries were reported in the collision and both vehicles were unoccupied at the time of the incident.
- On Friday, September 25, 2026, just before noon, members of the Lyon County Sheriff's Office and the Western Kentucky Violent Crime Task Force conducted an investigation at 960 McKinney Road, Kuttawa. The investigation resulted in the detention of three (3) adults who were present at the property during a law enforcement search of the premises.

Mandy L. Waldrige (46) of Lake Ozark, Missouri was arrested and served with a McCracken District Court bench warrant for Failure to Appear. In addition, Waldrige was charged with Possession of Controlled Substance-1st Degree, 2nd Offense (Methamphetamine), Possession of Firearm by Convicted Felon, and Drug Paraphernalia Possession.

Additionally, Raymond C. Crisp (38) of Benton was also arrested and charged with Possession of Controlled Substance-1st Degree (Methamphetamine), Possession of Firearm by Convicted Felon, and Drug Paraphernalia Possession.

Bonnie J. Redd (60) of Kuttawa, was arrested and charged with Trafficking in Controlled Substance-1st Degree (> or equal to 2 grams of Methamphetamine), 1st Offense and Drug Paraphernalia Possession.

Crisp, Redd, and Waldrige were all lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center. The investigation is being led by Deputy Bobby Beeler and Task Force Officers.

- On Saturday, September 26, 2026, around 9:40am, Chief Deputy Sam Adams served a Lyon Circuit Court bench warrant on Jason R. Owens (51) after he was extradited back to Kentucky from Alabama. Owens faces a felony probation violation in Lyon Circuit Court. He was lodged in the Crittenden County Detention Center.
