

LYON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE MEDIA RELEASE

- On Sunday, November 9, 2025, at 1:35pm, Sheriff Brent White responded to a single-vehicle collision on KY 93 South near Titus Road. His investigation revealed a 2018 Chevrolet Equinox traveling South, and driven by Tara S. Russell (48) of Hopkinsville, collided with a deer in the roadway, rendering the vehicle inoperable. Neither Russell, nor her two passengers were injured in the collision. Deputy Scott Wathen and the Eddyville Police Department assisted Sheriff White at the scene.
- On Wednesday, November 12, 2025 at 8:30am, Sheriff Brent White served a Crittenden District Court, criminal summons on Dee Anna Kinnis (57) of Marion. She faces a November court date in Marion, for a local ordinance violation.
- On Thursday, November 13, 2025, around 11:40am, the Sheriff's Office was dispatched to a burglary in progress of a closed Kuttawa business on Lakeshore Drive. Upon arrival, deputies did not locate anyone as initially reported. Deputies followed up with the victim to obtain more information and later was able to identify a suspect based on video surveillance footage. Chief Deputy Sam Adams later located the suspect and he admitted to stealing items from the property. Dwight 'Dee' S. Smith (57) of Princeton was charged with Criminal Trespassing and Theft by Unlawful Taking.
- On Saturday, November 15, 2025, around 1:52pm, Deputies were dispatched to a disturbance on Lake Barkley Drive in Kuttawa. The investigation revealed two female adults had engaged in a physical altercation before one of the females, who was reportedly intoxicated, fled the scene prior to the arrival of police. Deputies located an injured female who refused medical attention from Lyon County EMS. An investigation has been initiated and deputies are searching for Katharine R. Stacy (38) of Hopkinsville, who was the identified party that allegedly assaulted the female victim and fled the scene prior to the deputies' arrival. The investigation is continuing by Deputy Josh Travis.

- On Saturday, November 15, 2025, around 4:45pm, Deputies went to a home on KY 810 South and arrested Mae N. Frazier (51) of Kuttawa. She was charged on a Fayette District Court bench warrant with failure to appear as it pertained to a receiving stolen property case. Frazier posted bond and was later released from custody.
- On Saturday, November 15, 2025 around 5:42pm, Deputies were dispatched to Days Inn Drive in Kuttawa for a disturbance complaint. Their investigation revealed a disturbance began while two family members were traveling on I-24. This led to a female passenger exiting a vehicle and walking to a Kuttawa business for assistance. Deputies made contact with the female in Kuttawa and determined she was in crisis due to significant mental health issues. She was transported to an area hospital and admitted for treatment. No criminal charges are expected in this incident.
