

LYON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE MEDIA RELEASE

- On Tuesday, November 25, 2025, at 8:30am, Chief Deputy Sam Adams responded to a single vehicle collision complaint on Hopewell Road. His investigation revealed a 2016 Dodge Dart exited the roadway and was unoccupied when he first arrived. Chief Deputy Adams was able to locate and identify the driver, as James Malone (32) of Kuttawa. Malone was charged with Operating on a Suspended or Revoked Operator's License and Failure to Produce Insurance Card. There were no injuries in the accident.
- Beginning on Wednesday, November 26, 2025, at 4:34am and continuing through Sunday, November 30, 2025 at 9:30am, the Sheriff and/or Deputies responded to ten (10) domestic dispute-related incidents in the county. In most of the incidents, the parties were separated and no charges were filed. Several incidents resulted in the petitioning of protective orders through the Court. In one incident, a female was transported to an area hospital for a mental health evaluation. Sheriff Brent White reminds the public that Sanctuary, Inc. (800) 766-0000 offers domestic violence services and emergency shelter for victims, and Pennyroyal Center (877) 473-7766 offers mental health and crisis/emergency stabilization services for those in need. The Kentucky 988 suicide and crisis lifeline is also staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for those needing to connect with suicide prevention assistance, mental health, and substance use counselors. These providers tend to see an uptick in demand for these services around the holidays.
- On Thursday, November 27, 2025, just after 5:30pm, Deputy Josh Travis responded to I-69 with Kentucky State Police (KSP) and other first responders for a roll-over collision. Upon arrival, it was determined there were two non-injury collisions near the same mile marker. KSP investigated the non-injury rollover collision with two occupants, and Deputy Travis investigated a single vehicle collision. His investigation revealed a 2018 Subaru, driven by Andrew L. Petit (37) of Beaver Dam, was South on I-69 when he collided with a deer in the roadway. Petit was not injured in the collision. Following his collision, another vehicle which was South on I-69 came upon the first collision and lost control before overturning in the roadway. Both the driver and passenger of that vehicle were also not injured. The Eddyville Fire Dept., Eddyville Police Dept., and Lyon County EMS assisted Lyon County Sheriff's Office and KSP at these crash scenes.

- On Friday, November 28, 2025, around 6:24pm, Deputy Shannon Oliver responded to a single vehicle collision complaint in the city of Kuttawa. His investigation revealed a 2013 Dodge Durango, driven by John B. Boulton (70) of Calvert City, was West on US 62 when a deer entered the roadway. Boulton was unable to avoid a collision with the animal. There were no injuries reported to Boulton, nor to his passenger, in this collision.
