AN INVITATION TO JOIN US

Bishop Frank Schuster

Dear Fellow Pilgrims,

You are invited to follow in the footsteps of St. Paul the Apostle and the Early Christian Community. Join me on this spiritual journey to Greece! We will visit the ancient city of Thessaloniki where Paul sowed the seeds to the new Christian church, enjoy an outdoor Mass in Philippi – the church that was most near and dear to Paul, explore the Museum of Royal Tombs in Veria, visit the monasteries of Meteora, revel in one of the most religious sanctuaries of the ancient Greek world in Delphi, marvel at the ancient citadel – the Acropolis, adventure to the remains of the Temple of Aphrodite, following Mass at Cathedral of St. Denis explore the Byzantine and Christian museum, and so much more.

Enjoy Greek culture and cuisine while seeing the Acts of the Apostles and Letters of St. Paul come alive in your travels. I look forward to seeing you on this pilgrimage to Greece, birthplace of civilization and of the early Church.

Blessings on your travels,

Bishop Frank Schuster

OUR DAILY ITINERARY

Day 1, Tuesday, October 8: Depart the USA under our own travel arrangements

Each person will be making their own flight arrangements to the city of Thessaloniki in northern Greece.

Day 2, Wednesday, October 9: Arrive Thessaloniki

Upon your arrival in Thessaloniki, you can easily catch a taxi to our hotel. Check-in time is 3:00pm. If you arrive earlier and your room is not yet ready, you are welcome to check your luggage with the bell stand. We gather this evening for a welcome reception at our hotel, followed by dinner.(D)

Note: Those parties wishing to arrive a day earlier in Thessaloniki will need to book the own reservation for this pre-night at the Monasty Hotel in Thessaloniki (pending availability). Please make your pre-night reservation in the same category of rooms as our group reservation: Classic Rooms.

Day 3, Thursday, October 10: Thessaloniki: Visit of the site and leisure

This morning, after breakfast, we visit this ancient city. Founded around 315 BC by King Cassander of Macaedon, the king named the new city after his wife Thessaloniki, a half-sister of Alexander the Great. At the time of the Apostle Paul's arrival, Thessaloniki had a population of about 200,000 people and served as an important economic and political part of the Roman Empire. There was a large synagogue here — a religious center for the Jewish part of population of the smaller towns, which surrounded Thessaloniki and which had only church-houses.

About 50 AD, while on his second missionary journey, Paul spoke to the Jewish population from the city's chief synagogue on three Sabbaths and sowed the seeds for Thessaloniki's first Christian church. During Paul's time in the city, he convinced some people among both Jews and Greeks to adopt Christian beliefs, as well as some of the city's leading women. However, Jews who kept their faith banned Paul and his companions from their midst. Because they were no longer welcome, Paul, Silas and Timothy were eventually sent out of Thessaloniki by the new Christian converts. The men eventually continued their travels, and Paul wrote two letters to the new church at Thessaloniki, probably between 51AD and 53AD, the First Epistle to the Thessalonians and the Second Epistle to the Thessalonians.

Today, we will visit the Greek Orthodox Church of Saint Demetrius, named for a 4th century Thessalonian Christian martyr. We see as well the Church of Hagia Sophia, modeled on the church of the same name in Constantinople, dating from the 8th century. It is one of the oldest standing churches in Thessaloniki and a UNESCO World Heritage site monument.

We will celebrate Mass at the local Catholic parish of the Immaculate Conception, followed by the afternoon on your own to explore. Take some time to enjoy watching the life of the city at the Aristotelous Square, viewing the Rotunda of Galerius, used as a church for over 1200 years, and The Arch of Galerius built in 298 to 299 AD. Dinner this evening is served at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 4, Friday, October 11: Thessaloniki: Excursion to Philippi and Kavala

After breakfast, we set out to Philippi, the site where the apostle Paul came and established a strong church. The New Testament records a visit to the city by the Paul during his second missionary (AD 49 or 50). On the basis of the Acts of the Apostles and the Letter to the Philippians, early Christians concluded that Paul had founded their community. Accompanied by Silas and Timothy, Paul is believed to have preached for the first time on European soil in Philippi. According to the New Testament, Paul visited the city on two other occasions, in 56 and 57. Later he sent his Letter to the community at Philippi. Of all the churches Paul founded, probably none was so near and dear to him as the church at Philippi (Acts 16:9-33). We will celebrate an outdoor Mass here.

Philippi was built on the Via Egnatia, the Roman road which ran from Rome to Byzantium. We see the river where Lydia is thought to have been baptized, the ruins of a prison where Paul and Silas had been kept, the Agora, the 5th century Basilica and the Theater. Following the baptism of Lydia, the first Christian church in Europe was established here. We continue to the nearby port of Kavala, the ancient port of Neapolis (Acts 16:11) for a late lunch in the seaside port. We return to our hotel in Thessaloniki for dinner on our own this evening. (B, L)

Day 5, Saturday, October 12: Thessaloniki / Veria (St. Paul) / Vergina (Museum of the Royal Tombs / Kalambaka

This morning, after breakfast and check-out, we celebrate Mass in a local church in Thessaloniki, then we travel first to Veria, also known as Berea. During the Roman Empire, Veria became a place of worship for the Romans. Within the city there was a Jewish settlement where Paul, after leaving Thessalonica and his companion Silas, preached to the Jewish and Greek communities of the city in AD 50/51 and 54/55. Acts 17 10-15 records:

As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true. Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men. When the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea, they went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up. The brothers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed at Berea. The men who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then left with instructions for Silas and

Paul returned through the area of Berea during his third missionary journey, and despite the earlier opposition, many of the Bereans were converted. Sopater, one of Paul's traveling companions, was from Berea. We stop at the site, where tradition holds, Paul stood and delivered his sermons.

After some time for lunch on our own, we continue on to Vergina and the Museum of the Royal Tombs. The Royal Tombs were built by the ancient Kingdom of Macedon. The underground museum contains the burial cluster of Philip II of Macedon, and are a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After our visit, we continue on to our hotel in Kalambaka, situated at the foot of the stunning Meteora peaks. We check-in to our hotel for dinner and the evening. (B, D)

Day 6, Sunday, October 13: Kalambaka: Visit of the monasteries of Meteora

Today will visit the breathtaking Byzantine monasteries of Meteora. Derived from the Greek word "meteorizome," meaning "to hang in the air," the structures seem to do just that. Perched on a mountain of strangely shaped pinnacles in the Peneus Valley, they are far removed from the world and its distractions. During their heyday in the 15th and 16th centuries, the number monasteries grew to 24. The buildings were decorated with frescoes and icons from the great artists of the day.

Colossal symmetrical gray and reddish boulders, as though pushed upwards from the bowels of mother earth by an invisible hand, sustain breathtaking beautiful monasteries perched precariously high above the ground. Originally the only access was by means of very long ladders which could be drawn up when not in use, or in a basket or net suspended on ropes from a winch which was mounted in a winching tower above the void below: according to travelers in the past the ropes were not replaced until they broke. Steps have now been cut in the rock face, and there is a fine modern road serving the main monasteries.

We will reach the monasteries by climbing the stairs – no ropes for this group! The monasteries are veritable Byzantine museums exhibiting superb icons, old manuscripts and unique mosaics and frescoes. After our visit of two of the monasteries, we return to our hotel for some time at leisure to explore the village. Mass today will be celebrated in a room at our hotel. Dinner follows. (B, D)

Day 7, Monday, October 14: Kalambaka / Delphi (Oracle of Delphi) / Athens

This morning, after breakfast and check-out, we board our motor coach for Athens, stopping first at Delphi, one of the most important religious sanctuaries of the ancient Greek world, home to Apollo and the most famous oracle of antiquity. Its history dates to the Mycenaean period and in Homer's Iliad, the site was referred to as Pytho. The oracle or the Pythia as it was called was a woman over 50 who abandoned normal life and lived her life in seclusion to serve the many who came to have their questions answered. The Pythia would pronounce her prophesies while the priests wrote them down and translated them to the people. Among the most noted to come with questions were King Croesus and King Midas. After our visit, we gather for lunch at a local restaurant, then we continue on to our hotel in Athens for check-in and dinner. Mass will be celebrated at a church in Athens. (B,L,D)

Day 8, Tuesday, October 15: Athens: Visit of the Agora & Parthenon

After breakfast at our hotel, we begin with Mass at the Cathedral of St. Denis. After Mass, we enjoy a tour of the city of Athens, including the agora, where Paul addressed the Athenians. According to the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 17:16-34), while he was waiting for his companions Silas and Timothy to arrive, Paul was distressed to see Athens full of idols. His sermon at the Areopagus, the high court in Athens, is the most dramatic and fullest reported speech of his missionary career.

We also visit the famed Acropolis (the ancient citadel) located on a rocky outcrop above the city, and the Parthenon, Hadrian's Arch and the Temple of Zeus. We enjoy lunch together at a restaurant in the Plaka area. The balance of the day is at leisure to explore the city. Dinner is on our own to explore the local restaurants. (B, L)

Day 9, Wednesday, October 16: Athens: Excursion of Corinth

This morning after breakfast, we journey to Corinth. Here Paul spent 18 months, preaching to the Jews and Gentiles. The site is overlooked by an Acropolis housing the remains of the Temple of Aphrodite, goddess of love. In Corinth, Paul worked with Aquila and Priscilla, and his trial by Gallio took place in the agora. The community he founded here caused him much grief and prompted him to write at least four letters. We celebrate our Mass today in Corinth, with a reflection on Paul the Missionary. After our visit and Mass, we have lunch at a local seaside restaurant. We return to Athens for the afternoon at leisure, with dinner on our own to explore the local restaurants. (B, L)

Day 10, Thursday, October 17: Athens: Visit of the Byzantine and Christian Museum & leisure time in the Plaka

This morning after breakfast, we celebrate Mass at the Cathedral of St. Denis. After Mass, we visit the Byzantine and Christian Museum. The museum has over 25,000 artefacts in its possession. The artefacts date from between the 3rd and 20th century AD, and encompass the entire Greek world, as well as regions in which Hellenism flourished. The balance of the day is at leisure to shop and explore the city. Tonight we gather for a farewell dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 11, Friday, October 18: Return to the USA

This morning after an early breakfast, we bid farewell to our fellow pilgrims. The concierge at our hotel will be able to arrange private transfers to the airport for those interested, at an additional cost. (B)

Note: While no changes are anticipated, there may be unforeseen occasions when certain alterations become necessary to this itinerary. All Masses are subject to local church schedules and substitution with alternate Mass sites if churches mentioned are not available.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS & CONDITIONS: Any payments made by a Traveler or on behalf of the Traveler ("Traveler", "you") to Catholic Travel Centre (CTC) toward any CTC tour shall constitute acceptance of all Terms & Conditions provided herein.

PAYMENT TERMS: All payments shall be made on the dates indicated in the payment schedule, noted in the Registration Information section. Late payments are subject to a non-refundable $150 fee, and may result in cancellation. A Traveler registering within 120 days prior to departure must provide full payment by cashier check, plus a non-refundable late registration $150 fee. CTC reserves the right to cancel registrations not paid in full 105 days prior to tour departure and to charge fees per the Cancellation Policy. A non-refundable $75 fee is charged on all returned payments. Travelers agree not to dispute any credit card charges associated with this trip before contacting CTC first to resolve their concerns. CTC retains the right to dispute any chargeback that is improper and recover any costs, including attorney's fees related to improper chargebacks. Additionally, in the event of an improper chargeback, CTC retains the right to cancel any travel reservation related to that improper chargeback. NOTE: Credit card charges will not show as "travel expense" on your credit card statement, but will appear as "specialty services", "shopping" or another designation.

CHANGES IN FORM OF PAYMENT: To change from Cash Discount to Standard pricing, the difference between prices plus an additional $75 fee applies. After a Traveler's credit card has been charged for any portion of the tour, s/he is ineligible for the Cash Discount Price.

PARTIAL PACKAGES NOT AVAILABLE: Tour Packages are offered as described in this brochure, at the stated price. Partial package purchase is not available.

INDIVIDUAL CANCELLATION POLICY: CTC's cancellation policy is in effect upon first payment toward any CTC tour. A Traveler's cancellation must be provided in writing either by email, fax, or registered mail to CTC. The cancellation by the Traveler is effective on the date of the cancellation email, fax, or date of postmark. The Traveler forfeits the following fees to CTC based on the date of cancellation notice: anytime up to 120 days prior to departure, $500 fee; 119 to 90 days prior to departure, $500 fee plus 25% of Land Cost; 89 to 60 days prior to departure, $500 fee plus 50% of Land Cost; 59 days or fewer, all payments by Traveler made to CTC are forfeited, and there are no refunds. In event of individual cancellation, no name changes or substitutions are permitted. No shows: Land only passengers who do not show for first hotel night will be considered as tour cancellations: their hotel reservations will automatically be cancelled and cannot be reinstated.

PRICES: If the group does not reach the size advertised, the price or programming will be adjusted accordingly. Pricing is based on exchange rates and fares applicable at the time of quotation and is subject to change. Fuel surcharges are subject to increase up to 30 days prior to departure.

PASSPORT: A valid passport is required of all U.S. citizen passengers. Travelers of other nationalities should inquire with the appropriate embassies, and such Travelers are responsible for securing their own visas if required in addition to their valid passport. Travelers' passports must be valid for six (6) months following the return date of the trip. CTC expressly denies any responsibility for any losses incurred due to insufficient validity of a Traveler's passport.

HEALTH & MEDICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The Traveler is responsible for identifying and securing any health/medical related documentation required by the airlines and/or countries visited on the itinerary, and CTC bears no responsibility for the passenger not providing the required documentation. If a country requires proof of COVID vaccination and/or a negative COVID test, it is the responsibility of the passenger to secure such documentation within the required timeframe as a condition for joining this tour. The Traveler agrees not to hold CTC, our suppliers, or the group leaders responsible should they contract any illness during or after their travel.

It is highly recommended Travelers be medically healthy and physically capable of significant walking. CTC tours involve international travel to foreign countries that have different standards of accessibility than U.S. law. Transportation services, which are provided by third parties, as well as visited sites and accommodations, which are not owned, leased, or controlled by CTC, may not be compliant with accessibility standards required by U.S. law. CTC cannot guarantee wheelchair, motorized scooter, or walker accessibility during a trip and does not provide individual assistance to Travelers. If a Traveler requires special individual assistance, the Traveler, not CTC, is responsible for bringing and paying for a capable companion willing to assist the Traveler. CTC assumes no responsibility for Travelers' inability to fully participate in the tour, nor does CTC provide any refund for non-participation in any part of the tour.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: CTC strongly suggests the purchase of Travel Insurance to help protect Travelers' investment in the trip and to help provide medical coverage outside the United States. We also strongly suggest you purchase the broadest coverage available with the least amount of exclusions. Travel Insurance is encouraged because CTC strictly adheres to our Cancellation Policy. Because some Travel Insurance plans contain time-sensitive benefits, we encourage Travelers to do their research and purchase insurance in a timely manner. CTC is not qualified to answer technical questions about the benefits, exclusions, and conditions of travel insurance plans. CTC cannot evaluate the adequacy of the prospective insured's existing insurance coverage. If you have any questions about your travel protection, call your insurer or insurance agent or broker. Declining to purchase an adequate travel protection plan could result in the loss of your travel cost and/or require more money to correct the situation. You also acknowledge that without this coverage, there may be no way to recoup any losses, costs, or expenses incurred. If you choose to travel without adequate coverage, CTC will not be liable for any of your losses howsoever arising, for which trip protection plan coverage would otherwise have been available.

STATE DEPARTMENT & OTHER AGENCIES' ADVISORIES: The State Department (www.state.gov), the Center for Disease Control (www.cdc.gov), and other government departments and agencies may issue travel advisories or warnings for one or more of the destinations visited on tour, and such advisories or warnings may even be in effect at the time of your registration for this tour. Should you choose to travel to a country that has been issued a travel warning or advisory, CTC will not be liable for damages or losses that result from travel to such destinations. CTC cannot change its Cancellation Policy or Terms & Conditions based on any such warning or advisory or the occurrence of any terror, health, pandemic, or other incident in one or more of the places this tour is scheduled to visit. All cancellation penalties remain in full force and effect. It is your responsibility to be aware of any and all requirements for admittance to a country or state, including COVID-19 requirements. Certain countries have a requirement for foreign visitors to have valid medical insurance on entry. CTC cannot be held responsible for denied entry if the Traveler is unable to provide details to authorities of insurance or denial of entry for any reason.

ITINERARY: The itinerary presented in this brochure represents what CTC is planning for this trip; however, the itinerary is subject to final confirmations and changes in local schedules. While no changes are anticipated, CTC, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to change the itinerary, as it deems necessary or advisable. CTC is not responsible for costs or fees related to arrangements not made through CTC.

FINAL TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: Travelers receive travel documents by email approximately two weeks prior to departure. Bulk items such as luggage and names tags will be shipped by CTC to group leaders for distribution.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND MEALS: Accommodations are based on double/twin rooms with private bathroom facilities. A limited number of single rooms are available and are subject to a single room supplement fee. If no roommate is available for you, or your roommate cancels prior to departure, a single room supplement surcharge applies. Triple rooms are not always available and are discouraged because of cramped quarters; no price reduction for triple rooms. Meals are either menu of the day or buffet. Included meals are as shown in the itinerary (B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner).

LAND ONLY PASSENGERS: Travelers arranging their own airline ticket must meet the group at the first hotel of the itinerary.

BAGGAGE & PORTERAGE: Baggage is at Traveler's risk. Porterage for one piece of luggage is included at hotels.

NOT INCLUDED IN THE PRICE: Passports, visas, meals and beverages not mentioned, extras beyond standard menu, baggage fees, telephone calls, laundry, medical tests, and other items not explicitly stated as included.

PHOTOGRAPHY: CTC may take photographs or film of its trips and trip Travelers, and Traveler grants CTC express permission to do so and for CTC to use such for promotional or commercial use without payment of any fee or royalties. CTC has the unrestricted right to use and/or copyright and/or publish aforementioned photographs or film in any media for advertising or for any other lawful purpose. Traveler waives any ownership or publication right in connection with photographs or film taken by CTC.

PARTICIPATION: CTC reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any Traveler on any of its tours if, in its sole discretion, it deems accepting or retaining any such Traveler as being detrimental to the tour. No refunds shall be made for any unused portion of the tour in this instance, and any expenses related to early return home are the sole responsibility of the traveler. Traveler agrees to and shall indemnify and hold harmless CTC, and each of our officers, directors, employees and agents (collectively "CTC"), from any expenses, losses, liabilities, damages, judgments, settlements, and costs (collectively, "damages") involved with or incurred by CTC (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the advancement of same) with respect to any claims, law suits, arbitrations, or other causes of action, which result, directly or indirectly, from: (i) traveler's breach or violation, or threatened breach or violation, of this Agreement and (ii) Any damage caused by traveler while participating in the trip.

UNUSED SERVICES: There is no right to a refund for any unused services.

LIABILITY DISCLAIMER: CTC hereby expressly disclaims any and all liability for any personal injury, property damage, loss of baggage, accident, delay or irregularity, any claim for special or consequential damages, or any other loss that may be occasioned by the acts and/or omissions, whether negligent, wrongful, or intentional of any air carrier, hotel/motel, or other lodging operator, railroad operator, bus operator, public transportation, sea carrier, local sightseeing company, tour operator, tour leader, or spiritual director, any employees thereof, or for any other entity or individual not under the direct supervision and control of CTC when engaged in conveying the passenger or in carrying out the arrangements of the tour, or otherwise in connection therewith. CTC further disclaims any liability for any damages, losses, or expenses incurred, or inconvenience caused, due to delay or changes in schedules, defaults, over-booking of hotels or airlines, sickness, weather, strikes, quarantines, acts of terrorism, construction, war, pandemic, force majeure, or other such events that are beyond CTC's control. CTC likewise disclaims any liability for statements, actions, or inactions of any intermediary agents, such as group administrators, spiritual directors, tour leaders, travel agents, or any other intermediary involved with the selling, promotion, or operation of CTC's tours. Group administrators, spiritual leaders, and tour leaders likewise expressly disclaim any liability for the acts and/or omissions of any of the above entities and/or individuals not directly under their supervision or control. Please be advised that the liability of carriers as well as providers of hotel and lodging accommodations is limited by law, and Travelers may thus wish to consider purchasing a Travel Protection plan and/or additional insurance to protect themselves against any losses or injuries suffered as a result of their acts and/or omissions. In the event the tour leader and/or spiritual director named in a brochure or itinerary does not travel with the group and a substitute is not named therein, CTC reserves the right to make substitutions of its choosing for such person(s).

GROUP COORDINATOR/SPIRITUAL LEADER: The group coordinator and/or spiritual leader is not an employee, agent, or contractor of CTC. Statements made by group coordinator and/or spiritual leader are not binding on CTC, and we will not be liable for their actions, words or promises.

CANCELLATION BY GROUP COORDINATOR/SPIRITUAL LEADER: As CTC does not plan trips for individuals, a cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader effectively cancels the trip for all individuals booked on that trip. The cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader is effective on the date of the cancellation email, fax, or date of postmark. CTC will not be liable for any losses or expenses incurred due to the cancellation or alteration of the tour by your group coordinator and/or spiritual leader and you shall forfeit your $500 per person non-refundable operational fee in the event of any such cancellation.

CANCELLATION BY THE SUPPLIER: CTC will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if a supplier needs to cancel. CTC will also liaise between you and the supplier in relation to any alternative arrangements offered by the supplier, but CTC will have no further liability to you.

CANCELLATION BY CTC: CTC reserves the right to cancel any tour if the minimum number of travelers is not met. In such event, CTC shall refund all amounts paid by Traveler.

CANCELLATION BEYOND CTC's CONTROL: CTC disclaims any responsibility for any losses or expenses incurred due to cancellation or alteration of the tour resulting from, but not limited to: travel advisories or warnings issued by the State Department or any other relevant authority, acts of war, terrorism, acts of God, natural disasters, pandemic, or any other circumstance beyond CTC's control. In such case, CTC will assist Travelers in requesting refunds for all land services not received by the Traveler, less a non-refundable operational fee of $500 per person, that covers all trip planning and refund processing. CTC shall not be responsible for any non-recoverable amounts disbursed to service providers on a Traveler's behalf. Suppliers may choose to provide a travel voucher or credit in lieu of refund. CTC is not responsible for a supplier's failure to pay a refund or for supplier bankruptcy or insolvency.

POLICY AGAINST DISCRIMINATION: CTC does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam or other veteran in the provision of its tour and pilgrimage services.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS ONLY REGISTERED SELLER: Catholic Travel Centre is a registered Seller of Travel in the State of California: CST#: 2018667-40. "Registration as a Seller of Travel does not constitute approval by the State of California." Section 17550.24(f). CTC subscribes to the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. Non-residents of California are not eligible to make claims to this fund. A claim must be submitted to the TCRF within 12 months after the scheduled completion date of travel. For more information, visit www.tcrfinfo.org. In accordance with California law, CTC has a trust account to protect Traveler's purchase money.

FLORIDA SELLER OF TRAVEL: Fla. Seller of Travel Ref. No. ST43075.

JURISDICTION/VENUE/CLASS ACTION WAIVER/LIMITATION OF DAMAGES/NOTICE OF CLAIM: These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California without regard to conflict of law principles. Any dispute arising from the contract shall be litigated in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Los Angeles. You agree you will only bring claims against CTC in your individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class action or representative proceeding. CTC shall not in any case be liable for other than compensatory damages, and your payment of a deposit on a trip means you agree to these conditions of sale and expressly waive any right to punitive damages. You understand and agree no claims will be considered and you will not bring suit against CTC unless you have first provided a typewritten notice of claim to CTC within 12 months after the trip or cancellation of the trip.

TERMS & CONDITIONS CHANGES: Changes in any of the Terms & Conditions can be made only in writing signed by an officer of CTC.

FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS ONLY: Upon cancellation of the transportation or travel services, where the passenger is not at fault and has not canceled in violation of any terms and conditions previously clearly and conspicuously disclosed and agreed to by the passenger, all sums paid to CTC for services not provided will be promptly paid to the passenger, unless the passenger advises the CTC in writing, after cancellation. This provision does not apply where CTC has remitted the payment to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier, without obtaining a refund, and where the wholesaler or provider defaults in providing the agreed-upon transportation or service. In this situation, CTC must provide the passenger with a written statement accompanied by bank records establishing the disbursement of the payment, and if disbursed to a wholesale seller of travel, proof of current registration of that wholesaler.
