

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

THE BEATITUDES TODAY

The Beatitudes expose how a cultural style of grievance, domination, and fear contradict Jesus' upside-down Kingdom, while also giving language to call people beyond contempt into conversion and peacemaking.

1. Basic contrast: campaign logic vs. Beatitudes

-Parts of our culture runs on winning, grievance, and restoring lost greatness to “our people,” which assumes power is taken and held over enemies.

- The Beatitudes bless poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and persecution suffered for righteousness, which assumes God's power is received in weakness and shared for the sake of enemies.

We can ask ourselves today: “If the Beatitudes were a campaign speech, how many votes would they win?”—precisely because they undercut the normal incentives of power.

2. Beatitudes read against some cultural impulses

- “Blessed are the poor in spirit”: the rhetoric that promises restored strength, wealth, and dominance; Jesus blesses spiritual poverty, dependence, and repentance, not exceptionalism.

- “Blessed are the meek”: where we valorize “toughness,” humiliation of opponents, and contempt for the weak, Jesus blesses those who refuse domination and entrust their cause to God.

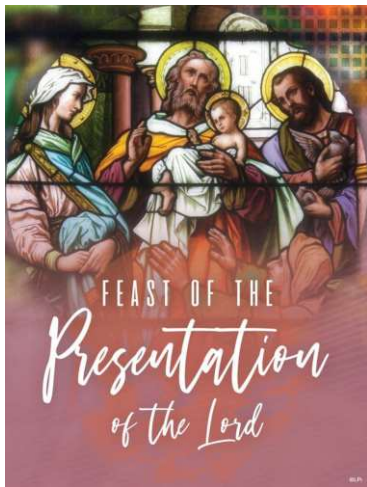

- “Blessed are the merciful”: some people often mock mercy as weakness, especially toward people perceived as “undesirables,” whereas the Church insists on the dignity of every person and rejects cruelty.

- “Blessed are the peacemakers”: Christian discipleship rejects violence and calls believers into costly peacemaking, not outrage, culture-war escalation, and sometimes approval of violence.

Any movement—left or right—that normalizes contempt, cruelty, or dehumanization is out of step with the Beatitudes, even if it uses Christian symbols.

When any social movement asks us to sacrifice truth, mercy, or the dignity any human being, it's asking us to betray the Beatitudes of Jesus.

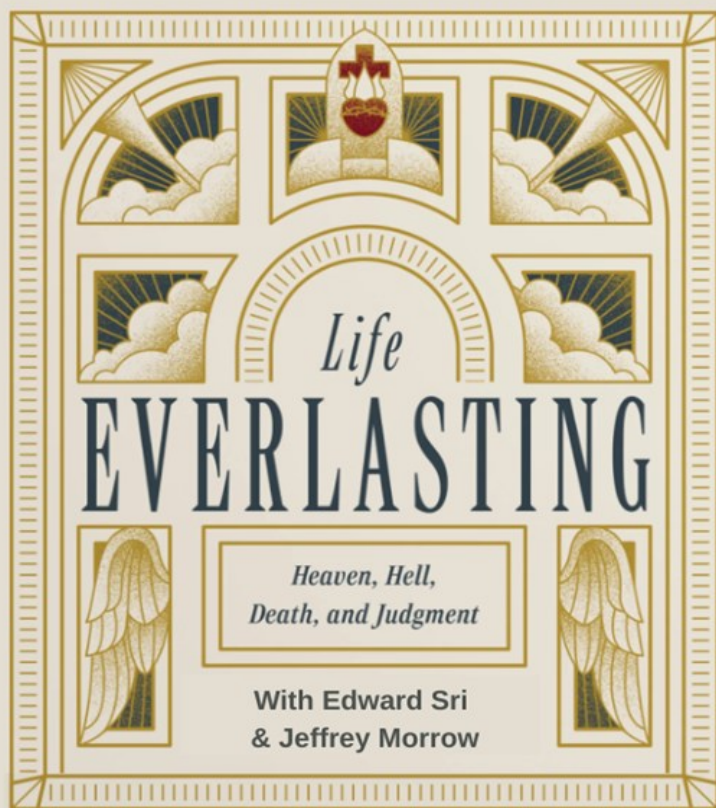

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Candlemas Day is another name for the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the rites of purification and dedication as prescribed by the Torah. According to the Book of Leviticus (12:1-4), when a woman bore a male child, she was considered “unclean” for seven days. On the eighth day, the boy was circumcised. The mother continued to stay at home for 33 days for her blood to be purified. After the 40 days, the mother and the father came to the temple for the rite of purification, which included the offering of a sacrifice — a lamb for a holocaust (burnt offering) and a pigeon or turtle-dove for a sin offering, or for a poor couple who could not afford a lamb, two pigeons or two turtledoves. Note Joseph and Mary made the offering of the poor (Lk 2:24).

As we consider the feast of the Presentation, we remember that our parents presented us at church for our baptism. We were dedicated to God, and given the name, “Christian.” We, too, received a lit candle from the paschal candle, at which the priest said, “You have been enlightened by Christ. Walk always as a child of the light and keep the flame of faith alive in your heart. When the Lord comes, may you go out to meet Him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom” (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). Therefore, as a light, each of us must bear witness to Our Lord. We must be the beacon that guides others to Christ. Also, we must realize that we, too, will be “a sign that will be opposed.”

International Food Festival Celebrates Culture, Community, and Catholic Identity

Dear Friends and Families of St. Catherine Catholic School,

Our school and parish community came together last Saturday for a joyful and delicious International Food Festival, celebrating the rich cultural diversity of our community. Families, students, and staff shared traditional foods from around the world, transforming the parish hall into a vibrant showcase of global flavors, colors, and traditions.

The festival was more than just a culinary experience—it was a living expression of our Catholic values. As we gathered around shared tables, we were reminded that the Church is universal, embracing people of every nation, language, and culture. Through food, conversation, and fellowship, we practiced hospitality and gratitude, recognizing God's gifts reflected in one another.

Students had the opportunity to learn about different countries, customs, and family traditions, deepening their appreciation for the global community we are part of. The event also highlighted the generosity of our families, whose time, talents, and recipes made the festival such a success.

We are grateful to everyone who contributed to making the International Food Festival a meaningful and memorable event. Moments like these strengthen our school community and remind us that, united in faith, we truly are one family in Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Mr. Steven Cullipher, M. Ed.
Principal

INSURANCE FUND 2026

St Catherine Church is responsible each year for a significant insurance premium that protects our church buildings, parish hall, offices, and all who worship and serve here.

To meet this obligation without cutting ministries, a special Insurance Fund has been established, and parishioners are invited to help as they are able. If you can make an extra gift to the "Insurance Fund" (by envelope or online), your sacrifice will directly help the parish meet this essential stewardship responsibility. Thank you for your continued generosity and for the many ways you care for our parish family.

GOAL: $110,000

Parishioners who wish to receive a statement of financial contributions to St. Catherine in 2025 for tax purposes are asked to fill in the information below and deposit it with the weekend collection or return it to the Parish Office.

GRIEF SHARE GROUP

Many of us have recently lost a loved one, life continues; for those of us who grieve, the hurt stays with us. God doesn't intend us to grieve on our own. We might be tempted to keep our pain inside and not share it with others in our Church family, but God's Word says that the healing comes in community, within the Church. Romans 12 says: "We're one body and we belong to one another."

Meeting first Sunday of the month at 2:00 PM in the Building S200, together, we will pray, share and support one another in our grief. Continuing the first Sunday of each month at 2:00 PM. For information text or call Marge Rafferty (863)214-3312.
