18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied. - Mt 14:19c-20

BLESSING

WELCOME BISHOP EMILIO BIOSCA

Please join us in joy and gratitude for Holy Mass with Bishop Emilio Biosca on Sunday, August 9, at 10:00 AM. Bishop Emilio, a Capuchin Franciscan who has served the Church as a missionary in Papua New Guinea and Cuba, now shepherds the Diocese of Venice with a heart for prayer, service, and communion.

Bishop Emilio will share with us after the Mass in the Social Hall.

For new Florida bishop, a ‘fisher of new disciples,’ the fishing trip has begun

Is it possible a singular moment could quantify the emotions elicited during an episcopal ordination? Love. Gratitude. Commitment. Service. Humility. Longing. Trust. Grace. All of that encapsulated the July 11, 2026, ordination and installation of Bishop Emilio as the third shepherd of the Diocese of Venice.

“Pope Leo is like a Hallmark card,” said Cardinal Sean P.

O’Malley, retired archbishop of Boston, who was the homilist and served as a co-consecrator of the new bishop, a fellow Capuchin Franciscan. “He cares to send the very best.”

And, on July 11, he was ordained a bishop by the same man who ordained him as a priest — Cardinal O’Malley. “I speak as someone who has known Bishop Biosca for 50 years or more. ... I watched Emilio grow up. He came to live with us at the house of discernment, Casa Galilea. Out of that little community came many wonderful priests, and five bishops and two cardinals. There must have been something in the water,” said the cardinal, who in the early 1970s was a priest at Sacred Heart and worked with Latin American migrants in Washington. The cardinal became friends with the family after Emilio Sr., a dentist, helped establish a dental clinic for the immigrants in the District of Columbia area. He had followed the younger Capuchin’s vocation, including when he served as a missionary in Papua New Guinea and in Cuba.

As a priest, then-Father Emilio volunteered and was sent to serve in the Capuchin mission in Papua New Guinea from 1994 to 2004. From 2002 to 2004 he served as the director of novices for the Capuchin Novitiate in Pangia. In 2007, Bishop Emilio entered Cuba, in collaboration with the Capuchin Spanish delegation of Madrid. He spent his first year in Havana, then three years as pastor of La Pastora Parish in Santa Clara, and his last eight years there on the eastern side of the country in the Diocese of Bayamo-Manzanillo.

Cardinal O’Malley said the Diocese of Venice is not a missionary diocese, joking the demographics are described as a “silver tsunami,” and it is a profile that does not fit where Capuchin bishops generally serve — mission lands.

But he said the appointment is “another one of God’s surprises” in Bishop Emilio’s life, and along with older, loyal Catholics are the poor and marginalized, many of whom are immigrants who work, as laborers in the fields and in the tourism industry.

Cardinal O’Malley said Bishop Emilio’s “deep love” for “Jesus crucified” and the Franciscan virtues of simplicity, solidarity and joy will prepare him for his service in Venice.

“Emilio, God’s providence has placed you in a new and a different reality. ... You responded generously years ago by embracing a call to the priesthood. Today is a second calling,” Cardinal O’Malley said in his homily. “Remember always, that your ministry is above all a call to follow Christ, sharing in the hardships of the Gospel. ... Jesus is teaching us that all ministry is about love, about laying down your life for the flock and that ministry is borne out of a deep friendship with the risen Lord.” While the new bishop might feel now or at times “unworthy” of his position, Cardinal O’Malley stressed that is a good thing. He reminded him he will be a “fisher of new disciples” and that he should rely on the gift of God, which is not a spirit of “cowardice, but of power, of love and of self-control.” In his remarks before the close of Mass, Bishop Emilio offered gratitude to those who had previously served in the District of Columbia, Cuba and Papua New Guinea and to all his fraternal brothers for their kindness, support, leadership, wisdom and faith.

Dear St. Catherine Catholic School Families, Faculty, Staff, and Parish Community,

A Summer of Faith, Learning, and Adventure at St. Catherine Catholic School

St. Catherine Catholic School's summer camp provided students with an exciting season filled with faith, learning, creativity, and adventure. Throughout the summer, campers enjoyed hands-on activities, discovered new talents, explored the natural world, and made lasting memories with their friends and teachers.

Music played a special role in the camp experience. Students were introduced to the harp, violin, and other musical instruments, giving them opportunities to appreciate the beauty of music and experience the joy of creating it. Campers also visited First Presbyterian Church in Lake Placid, where they learned about and saw the church's impressive pipe organ (special thanks to Joshua Klatt).

Several field trips brought learning to life. At Highlands Hammock State Park (thanks Don Israel, KoC) and Archbold Biological Station, students explored Florida's unique plants, wildlife, and ecosystems. A trip to Gatorama offered an up-close look at some of our state's most fascinating animals. Campers also visited Toby's Clown School in Lake Placid, where they enjoyed a colorful and entertaining introduction to the art and history of clowning.

One of the summer's most meaningful moments was a visit from our new bishop, Bishop Emilio. His presence was a special blessing for our students and staff and served as a joyful reminder that faith remains at the heart of everything we do at St. Catherine.

We are grateful to the teachers, staff members, volunteers, families, and community partners, especially Anthony Fontanes, Vicknell Berrios, Elizabeth Costa, Taliah Emilio, Lytza Reyes, Bernda Berryman and Mary Alexander, who helped make this year's summer camp possible. It was truly a summer of discovery, friendship, faith, and fun—and a wonderful reflection of the vibrant learning community at St. Catherine Catholic School.

2026-2027 School Year is Upon Us!

As we prepare to welcome students and families for the upcoming school year, St. Catherine Catholic School is excited to begin a new chapter in our mission of forming young people in faith, wisdom, and virtue. This year, we will launch our Classical Catholic Education program, strengthening our commitment to educating the whole child—mind, body, and soul.

Classical Catholic Education seeks to lead students toward what is true, beautiful, and good, with Jesus Christ at the center of all learning. Students will encounter great works of literature, history, mathematics, science, music, art, and the Catholic intellectual tradition. They will learn not simply to memorize information, but to think carefully, communicate clearly, recognize beauty, and pursue truth with confidence.

Our classrooms will emphasize meaningful discussion, wonder, imagination, and the connections among different subjects. Through age-appropriate instruction in grammar, logic, and rhetoric, students will develop the knowledge and skills needed to become thoughtful learners and effective communicators. Prayer, Sacred Scripture, the lives of the saints, and the teachings of the Church will continue to guide our students throughout each day. This initiative builds upon the strong Catholic identity, academic excellence, and caring family atmosphere that have long distinguished St. Catherine Catholic School.

We look forward to welcoming returning families and those joining our school community for the first time. Together, we will help our students grow in knowledge, deepen their faith, develop virtuous habits, and discover the gifts God has given them.

Please pray for our students, families, faculty, and staff as we begin this exciting journey. May the coming school year be filled with faith, friendship, discovery, and a joyful pursuit of truth, beauty, and goodness.

God Bless,

Steven Cullipher, M. Ed.
Principal

VOICES OF HOPE YOUTH GROUP

For more information contact Youth Group coordinator: Jose Rodriguez (863)245-7597.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The RCIA process is now called OCIA, reflecting a closer translation of the process by which adults are initiated into the Catholic faith, specifically our Roman Catholic tradition, and become initiated into the life of our Church through the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

If you know of anyone who is interested in learning more about our Catholic Faith, about becoming Catholic or in need of the Sacraments, please extend an invitation to them to come to the RCIA sessions.

These classes will begin in September. For more information, or to register for classes, please call Juana at (863)385-0049.
