PROMOTE

UKAFNP believes nurses and paramedics are well placed delivering forensic healthcare in custody. Promoting this unique role at a national and governmental level.

REPRESENT

UKAFNP is represented at many national meetings, including NHS England, the FFLM's Forensic Science and Academic Subcommittee.

STEER

UKAFNP is relentless in its drive to steer the profession. Ensuring a high standard of practice and training. In part through the ASET award.

UK ASSOCIATION OF FORENSIC NURSES AND PARAMEDICS

The UK Association of Forensic Nurses and Paramedics (UKAFNP) is the UK's leading association for forensic nurses, paramedics and midwives (forensic healthcare practitioners). Bringing together forensic healthcare practitioners from across the country. UKAFNP aims to raise awareness of the work of forensic healthcare practitioners and improve access to them.
