

LGBT RESOURCES

For Transgender or Gender Questioning Patients:

Adolescent Clinic Appointments:

<http://www.cincinnatichildrens.org/service/a/adolescent-medicine/contact/>

Lee Ann Conard, DO, MPH: <http://www.cincinnatichildrens.org/bio/c/leeann-conard/>

And a nice little blog post from them: <http://cincinnatichildrensblog.org/healthy-living/gender-variance-part-1-understanding/#.VKr7DivF-So>

Regional support group: <http://transwellness.org/> Local support network: <http://www.crossport.org/>

For African American patients or those with a religious bent:

<http://www.transsaints.org/mid-west.html>

Counselors with special expertise in Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Patients:

David Leonard, MD (psychiatry) 513-961-8861. Leslie Evelo, PhD 513-521-5088

Our usual “Big Three” of Viewpoint (859-442-8439), Therapeutic Collaborative (859- 572-0400) and Counseling and Diagnostic Center (859-282-0119) all do a great job with our LGB patients and adhere to national standards

Others in town with good experience in LGBT issues: Cori Yaeger, PhD 513-232-2139

Legal Support

Family Law: Scott Knox 513-241-3800 or lambdalegal.org

Family Network and Support

PFLAG www.pflag.org Local chapter meets at Mt Auburn Presbyterian Church the second Tuesday of every month. The local chapter is excellent and its website is www.pflagcinci.org

For Students (especially those in less progressive schools without Gay-Straight Alliances)

www.glsen.org Local chapter is terrific. They hold an “Alternative Prom” every year, an annual Youth Summit and are very connected. Local chapter is glsen.org/chapters/cincinnati

Emergency Resources

GLBT Community Center 513-591-0200

Sheakley Center of Lighthouse Youth Services <http://www.lys.org/runaway2.html> and 513-961-4080