Thank You

Thank you to all who worked so hard to make our celebrations beautiful: the musicians, the army of people who decorated and cleaned, our sacristans, ministers of the Word, servers, and especially you who have joined in our celebrations and worship.

Fritz Koenig (1901-1990), Flight Into Egypt 1953, woodcut.

He was born into the world unnoticed and unimportant. But he was born into a family who, because of their deep and constant love, would do anything necessary for his good. No sacrifice was too much. They had little in tangible wealth to speak of, but they had a deep and unshakeable faith, that whatever might come, God would be with them to sustain them and lead them where they needed to go.

Mary stares off into the night sky, open to God, looking for direction, as they rest while fleeing Herod's soldiers. Joseph stands by, solid and trusting, his sole concern is for the child and its mother. In all of their apparent isolation they are surrounded by a ring of flowers, a small gesture of creation to recognize the one to whom they owe their existence.

Treasure the people God has gathered around you: family, friends, church, and larger communities. They are God's gift, to challenge and encourage us to deeper love and interdependence. They are a reminder of his ongoing presence in our lives. Let us deepen our faith as Mary and Joseph to see him in all things.
