What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact is a written communication describing how all members of school community—parents, teachers, principals, and students—agree to share responsibility for student learning. This Compact helps bridge the learning connection between school and home.

Effective Compacts:

- Link to goals of the school improvement plan
- Focus on student learning skills
- Describe how teachers will help students develop those skills using high-quality instruction
- Share strategies parents can use at home
- Explain how teachers and parents will communicate about student progress
- Describe opportunities for parents to volunteer, observe, and participate in the classroom

Plan of Action

Increasing Math Skills

As a school – We will offer in-school and after-school tutoring for students who are struggling in math and offer research-based programs to supplement classroom instruction.

As a parent – I will stay informed of my child's progress in Math and provide transportation for after-school tutoring.

As a student – I will commit to attending tutoring when I am struggling in my math class and will communicate with my parent and teacher when I need additional help.

Increasing Writing Skills

As a school – We will provide research-based writing instruction in the classroom and offer detailed feedback to help facilitate the revision process for students, provide parents with quarterly updates on specific writing growth, and provide in-school and after-school tutoring in the area of writing.

As a parent – I will monitor my child's growth in writing, provide transportation to after-school tutoring, and provide feedback on progress reports and grades.

As a student – Using the feedback my teacher provides, I will work with my teacher and parents to revise my assigned essays and attend tutoring when I am struggling in my class.

Increasing Reading Skills

As a school – We will provide specific research-based reading strategies for all students in all content areas, administer reading assessments and use data to guide our instruction, and offer in-school and after-school tutoring in reading.

As a parent – I will make reading a priority and monitor internet time and limit usage, if necessary, and provide transportation to after-school tutoring.

As a student – I will make reading a routine and learn ways to strengthen my reading skills.

“Partnering together for student success.”
