While meetings are already broadcast live online, the Council agrees	No Report that making recordings available afterwards would strengthen accountability and enable greater public scrutiny of decisions made by the Council on behalf of residents. The Council therefore resolves: 1. To commit in principle to recording its public meetings and publishing those recordings online, free of charge, for residents to access after each meeting, in addition to the existing live broadcast arrangements. 2. To refer the matter to the relevant committee, working with the Clerk, to consider how this commitment can be implemented and report back to Council with recommendations. 3. To request that the report consider suitable recording and publication arrangements, costs, accessibility, data protection, the handling of confidential business, how soon recordings should be published after each meeting, how long they should remain available, and a proposed timetable for implementation.
