Notes from the Parsonage

Here is an interesting question. How has your Lent been? Now let me make a few comparisons. Some traditions say we need to give up something. Which begs the question, have you? Other traditions say it is a time of penance and sacrifice. Has it been? Is it even possible to meet standards such as this? For me, I'd like to find the answer in the fact that one is trying to live that kind of Christian ethic the best that they can. What I mean is we are trying to live the Christian life as we interpret God's word for our lives. We are thinking about our relationship with God and making the effort to change what we need to change. We are looking at this Lenten season as possibly a time of rededication, renewal of our faith. Lent takes us from death to new life. Our Easter Celebration takes us from Christ's horrible sacrificial death on the Cross to that glorious resurrection when Jesus emerges from the tomb having made the ultimate sacrifice for us. The angels sang at His birth; we celebrate His resurrection. New life and our hope of eternal life is given. HE IS RISEN, HE IS RISEN, HE IS RISEN, HE IS RISEN INDEED.

Serving Him and Serving you,

Pastor Joel
