Lenten Services Schedules

Will March come out like a lamb or a lion? We've enjoyed a false spring, Started the first of our Lenten services. Which we cancelled. Some of us might be looking over the snow drifts hoping for the green grass and warmer weather of Spring. The Lenten journey is unique. I want to say for many, it is a time of repentance. Some of us choose to give something up during this season as a sign of sacrifice. No matter what Lent may mean to you it is that season of the Church Year for us to look forward and celebrate all of the aspects of our redemption. We are drawn toward the Cross remembering Christ's sacrifice for all of us. We celebrate our Lord's glorious resurrection. So much, so much, so much.

Of course we read our biblical accounts of the events that took place during Lent and that ultimate day, the day Christ was crucified. I am drawn to how to how the other disciples must have felt during this time. We know they weren't ready. It took them by surprise yet they endured. Soon to be filled by the Spirit and doing wondrous works for God. So what is your Lent? A time to remember and appreciate all that Christ has done for you? A time to give notice of your relationship with God and continue to stay the course? We know how we got here spiritually. We remember God's lessons, He has taught us through the year. We thank God for all He has done.

Serving Him and Serving you,

Pastor Joel
