

FREE PRESENTATION

December 7, 3-5 pm

KITSAP ENVIRONMENTAL COALITION
PRESENTS

Bremerton Public Works Conference Room

100 Oyster Bay Ave N., Bremerton 98312

Snacks & Refreshments!

Green Mountain Summit Protecting Critical Habitat

Speaker:

Joshua Wright - Programs Director, Legacy Forest Defense Coalition

FOOD DONATION:

Please bring a food donation for our local communities in need.

Please join the Kitsap Environmental Coalition, the Legacy Forest Defense Coalition (WLFDC) and Bremerton City Councilor Anna Mockler in a discussion about the steps needed to protect WA Dept. of Natural Resources trust lands near Green Mountain in central Kitsap County. Joshua Wright of WLFDC will describe the natural areas, explain the current political situation, and present ideas that concerned citizens can use to protect the environment for future generations.

Joshua Wright is an award-winning filmmaker and a youth forest activist, working for the preservation of the more than human world. He works as the Program Director of the Legacy Forest Defense Coalition and leads work in Southeast Alaska. In British Columbia, he uses satellite imagery to track the logging of endangered old-growth forests and works with lead researchers to protect endangered species living in threatened old growth forests.