Building Better Cities | Protecting Nature

How innovative urban planning saves our rural landscape

Join us this month as our presenters explore how urban density actually curbs sprawl and protects nature, and offer an optimistic vision for happier, greener cities. Leading the discussion will be Travis Merrigan, writer for "The Urbanist" and Kevin Walthall from Strong Towns Kitsap.

Renowned fiber artist Melinda West will be our featured artist, showcasing her work and philosophy.

Families welcome!

Coffee, tea, and kids crafts will be available. Please bring treats to share!

Visit the Kitsap Environmental Coalition site for more details.
