

The Historical Society of Rockland County is a nonprofit educational institution and principal repository for original documents and artifacts relating to Rockland County. Its headquarters are a four-acre site featuring a history museum and the 1832 Jacob Blauvelt House in New City.

The HSRC has seen many changes over the past 60 years in Rockland County. What doesn't change is our gratitude for your support and our commitment to making the vibrant history of Rockland available and widely accessible.

Rockland is rich in history. Our mission is to save and to share it.

This is the time of year we give thanks. Help us keep enriching your life and the life of our Rockland community.

ANNUAL APPEAL

Charitable giving continued at a high level nationally last year, a trend that was certainly reflected in the support the HSRC received from our members and friends. Our ability to offer programs and thrive in these challenging times depends on your interest and generosity. Your past support made it possible for us to come this far. This year, I'm asking you again to Please consider making a generous donation to the Annual Appeal!

Your gift is greatly appreciated and tax-deductible to the extent provided by law.
