

The Historical Society of Rockland County Invites You to Join Us for

Haverstraw and the American Revolution

Ordinary Haverstraw Residents Doing Extraordinary Things

Sunday, September 27, 2026

The presentation will start promptly at 2 pm in the lower-level Community Room

Price: $5 (Space is limited; reservations are required.)

<https://www.eventbrite.com>

In this special presentation, Haverstraw Town Historian Stephen Cobb highlights extraordinary stories, unsung heroes, and pivotal moments that shaped our community and played a vital role in the birth of American independence, including:

- Haverstraw's role in drafting the Declaration of Independence
- The Haverstraw women who helped win the Battle of Stony Point
- The two Haverstraw farmers who foiled Arnold's treasonous plot
- The many Haverstraw residents who faced hardships during the long road to independence

About the presenter: Stephen Cobb studied history and geography at Brandeis University and recently retired as a librarian at Sleep Hollow High School. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Haverstraw King's Daughters Library and has been Haverstraw's Town Historian since 2009.
