This male patient saw Dr. Ronald Hillock at Nevada Orthopedic & Spine Center

Here is the patient's story:

The last time I visited Dr. Ronald Hillock's office, I ended up so upset and disappointed and with so much frustration that I almost left in tears.

Dr. Hillock treated me like a piece of garbage. He turned his back on me and left the room while I was speaking (asking him a questions).

This is an individual with a volatile personality, and I guess I was unlucky enough the date of the consultation that I had to deal with such a bad experience.

During my journey fighting against cancer, I trusted him tremendously. He was recommended to me by one of my other doctors.

Unfortunately, everything turned out to be a very sour experience with a note of unprofessional behavior and poor bedside manners.

End of the story...

He refused to look at my swollen hip and right leg, so I had to go to the Emergency Room.

I was immediately hospitalized because I had a huge blood clot on my right thigh.

They did surgery on me to remove the blood clot, and I spent 10 days in Intensive Care.

Do NOT go to Dr. Ronald Hillock.
