Patient-216 went to Sunrise Hospital. Patient says Sunrise Hospital is a horrible place with subpar care. He had a botched surgery and was forced to use the same surgeon to try to fix it. Patient was lied to and was kept waiting for pain medication.

Patient-216 went to Sunrise Hospital for surgery.

Here are the patient's comments:

Horrible place.

Pain meds are usually about 20 minutes late when you are hurting.

The case managers don't know anything about you and either completely lie or get you mixed up with other people.

Botched a surgery and forced me to go back to the same surgeon to "fix" it. Well, we will see if it's fixed.

Subpar care.

Patient-216 had a botched surgery at Sunrise Hospital.

A botched surgery is a medical or cosmetic procedure that goes wrong, resulting in a poor outcome, unexpected complications, or physical deformity.

It is almost always caused by preventable factors like a surgeon's poor technique, bad planning, or carelessness, rather than an ## unavoidable, known risk.

REMINDER: If you are not getting proper medical care or are being harmed or mistreated at Sunrise Hospital, leave and go to a better hospital.

Just say NO to Sunrise Hospital
