

Patient-252

Patient-252 went to Dr. Ronald Hillock at Nevada Orthopedic & Spine Center. Patient would give him zero stars and says don't waste your time and money. He was disrespectful and rude and couldn't wait to leave the room. Made inappropriate comments about breastfeeding. Patient says "I'm surprised his behavior is accepted and he works with people. Very unprofessional!!"

I would give Dr. Ronald Hillock zero stars if I could.

Please, if you can, go to someone else and don't waste your time and money.

I'm dealing with a knee synovitis.

I got sent to Dr. Hillock from another doctor saying that I would definitely need a surgery.

Hillock literally took 5 seconds to look at my MRI and said it's just an inflammation, no surgery needed.

He couldn't wait to leave the room.

He was disrespectful and rude!!

He prescribed me steroid pills and told me I'll be fine.

I told him I breastfeed my baby (can't take steroids while breastfeeding), and he's like "6-month-old baby. It's time to stop breastfeeding. He's old enough." Like what???

How is that Dr. Hillock's business how long I breastfeed?

From the moment I walked into the room, he couldn't wait to leave.

He told me to come back in two weeks to see how the steroids worked.

They didn't work at all, and he basically told me to take ibuprofen and said there is nothing else he can do. Wow!!

I'm surprised his behavior is accepted and he works with people. Very unprofessional!!

Everyone else in the office was very nice and kind.

Every time I went there, I paid $200, and the actual visit with the doctor lasted less than 10 minutes, and he prescribed me ibuprofen.

Really?? I should get my money back!!!
