

Patient-278

Patient-278 went to Dr. Holman Chan at Nevada Orthopedic. Ankle surgery resulted in a deformity and chronic pain from the bottom of her foot to her left hip. Patient says the doctor is arrogant and makes false statements. Patient cannot get help from other orthopedic surgeons because of the severity of the damage.

Patient-278 went to Dr. Holman Chan at Nevada Orthopedic & Spine Center for surgery on her left ankle.

Had a surgery by this doctor!!!

And what a mess he made out of my ankle -- which has now turned into a deformity and chronic pain from the bottom of my foot to my left hip.

Ironically, I met a young lady that went through the same surgery and has the same issues going through Dr. Chan, as well.

One thing about this Dr. Holman Chan is that he's very arrogant -- especially if you mention anything about something not being right or not feeling right.

He comes back with falsehoods about statements he actually stated in other office visits, then denies it.

He always comes back with "I did excellent work!!" Never talks about the concerns of the patient.

Now I have been denied four different times through other orthopedic surgeons because of the severity of my left ankle!!

No one wants to touch it!!

Yes, Dr. Chan has great reviews, but all it takes is that one patient to speak up for the rest that have been mistreated by his practices in his medical treatment.

Read the story of Patient-1 to learn more about the horrific problems in the medical system in Las Vegas -- especially the part that describes how other doctors in town will NOT help patients when they have been harmed by one of their "buddies." They have to protect the good 'ol boy network!!

Just say NO to Nevada Orthopedic and just say NO to Dr. Holman Chan
