

Patient-75

Patient-75 had hip replacement by Dr. Ronald Hillock with Nevada Orthopedic & Spine Center. Patient has a pin sticking out of from his hip replacement, just 2 centimeters from the artery. Dr. Hillock doesn't care. Patient would give Dr. Hillock minus-10 stars.

Patient-75 saw Dr. Ronald Hillock at Nevada Orthopedic & Spine Center.

Here is the patient's story:

I leave a minus-10. Worst place to go.

Dr. Hillock basically ignored my needs. Don't go here. Worst place to go and waste your time.

First time I took my records, they said they had already seen them.

They are not concerned about the pin sticking out of my hip replacement that is 2 centimeters from my artery.

This time they said they don't have any records. They don't know what they have. They just say anything to get rid of you.

Dr. Hillock is the worst.

I'm in constant fear of falling because my knee is giving out. In fact, I did fall.

The first time I was there, I got a cortisone shot in my knee. That lasted about 10 minutes.

The 2nd time I saw Dr. Hillock, he basically acted like he didn't hear me or care about my needs.

Waste of my time and dwindling energy.

I DON'T RECOMMEND ANYONE GO HERE. GOTTA BE A BETTER PLACE THAT CARES ABOUT THE PERSON.

I think they just back each other up no matter what the patient needs.

I want to give them minus-10 stars (but I had to give 1 star to post this).

Dr. Hillock at Nevada Orthopedic is the worst. I would give him a rating of minus-10.
