

INTERNATIONAL WAR ANIMAL DAY

24TH FEBRUARY

Did you know?

During World War One, British forces utilised canaries primarily as living, early-warning detectors for poisonous, odorless gases—specifically carbon monoxide—in the underground tunnels of the Western Front.

ASA Ancre Somme Association
Registered Charity NIC108368

www.asauk.org