

INTERNATIONAL WAR ANIMAL DAY

24TH FEBRUARY

Did you know?

Elephants played a critical, non-combat role in the British military Burma Campaign during World War II. Working alongside British forces, up to 700 elephants were utilised for their strength, intelligence, and ability to navigate terrain impassable to motorised vehicles.

Ancre Somme Association
Registered Charity NIC108368

www.asauk.org