EMK™ PRACTITIONER CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

To become qualified as an EMK™ Practitioner, you must attend and complete all assessments for each of the first six courses and successfully complete the Practitioner Certification Training Program.

You will receive a Certificate of Attendance and a Certificate of Proficiency as you successfully complete each course's attendance and assessment requirements.

Additional Requirements:

- Emotions and Metaphysical Kinesiology™ Public Liability & Professional Indemnity Insurance to practice kinesiology and facilitate workshops (available through our recommended insurance provider).
- Current 'Provide First Aid' Certificate
- A signed 'By The Bay Kinesiology' (BTBK) Practitioner Agreement (detailing CPE, Code of Ethics, Confidentiality and Copyright) for the term of two years in line with CPE.
- Complete EMK™ Continuing Professional Education (CPE) requirements every two (2) years as specified in the Practitioner Agreement to be maintained as an active[#] and Certified Emotions and Metaphysical Kinesiology™ Practitioner.

[#] Active refers to maintaining self-development with 40 CPE points every two year period.

PREREQUISITES TO PRACTITIONER CERTIFICATION PROGRAM ENROLMENT

The Practitioner Certification Training Program is taught by Denise Robinson of By The Bay Kinesiology once a year, starting in August.

To be eligible to attend the Practitioner Certification Training Program, you must have attended the following four courses:

1. Kineasy Intro Course
2. Mastery of the Five Elements Core Essence and Character
3. Meridian Rivers of Chi Kinesiology
4. Chakra Healing Kinesiology

Please note: You do not need to have completed all your assessments for each of these four courses - you must have attended all four prior to the commencement of the Practitioner Certification Training Program in August.
