“Minnesota law does not require you to purchase a casket for cremation. If you want to arrange a cremation, you can use a cremation container. A cremation container is a combustible, closed container resistant to the leakage of bodily fluids that encases the body and can be made of materials like fiberboard, or composition materials with or without an outside covering. The container we use is heavy cardboard.” FTC

General Price List

These prices are effective as of November 3, 2025
(Subject to change without notice.)

The goods and services shown in this price list are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic service and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Professional Services

	$4350
BASIC SERVICES OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND STAFF.....
Our charge includes funeral counseling, necessary arrangements, recording vital statistics, securing permits, filing and obtaining death certificates, other forms and claims, preparation of necessary notices and coordination of service plans with parties involved in the final disposition of the deceased. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials and forwarding or receiving remains.)
EMBALMING.....	$875
Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial or when refrigeration or use of dry ice is available.

Payment Policy

We know that the loss of a loved one can be a difficult and traumatic time. We try to be as transparent and forthcoming about funeral expenditures as possible during the arrangements so you can feel comfortable understanding and remaining within your budget. As a local, family-owned business, we continue to operate by obtaining prompt payment for the services that we provide. Therefore, it is necessary that we ask how the services for you loved one will be paid for prior to services being scheduled. Below are the payment options that we accept. If you have any questions regarding the options below or our payment policies, please don’t hesitate to ask. Thank you for entrusting the care of your loved one to us.

For your convenience, we accept the following methods of payments.

- Cash
- Personal or Cashier/Bank Check
- Credit Card – Visa, Master, or Discover (a 3% processing fee will be added to all credit card payments)
- Pre-paid funeral or burial account
- Life Insurance Assignments (We must be able to verify that the policy is enforceable, assignable and all beneficiaries must be present to sign necessary forms.)
