

April 2026

As you step outside on a sunny April morning you feel the warm air, see signs of new growth and even smell “spring in the air.” What a grand time of the year. Let’s celebrate the change of seasons with passages that speak of new life (resurrection) – seeds, trees, plants, and fruits. Some of the passages will talk very literally about the new life whereas others will draw pictures and speak in symbols.

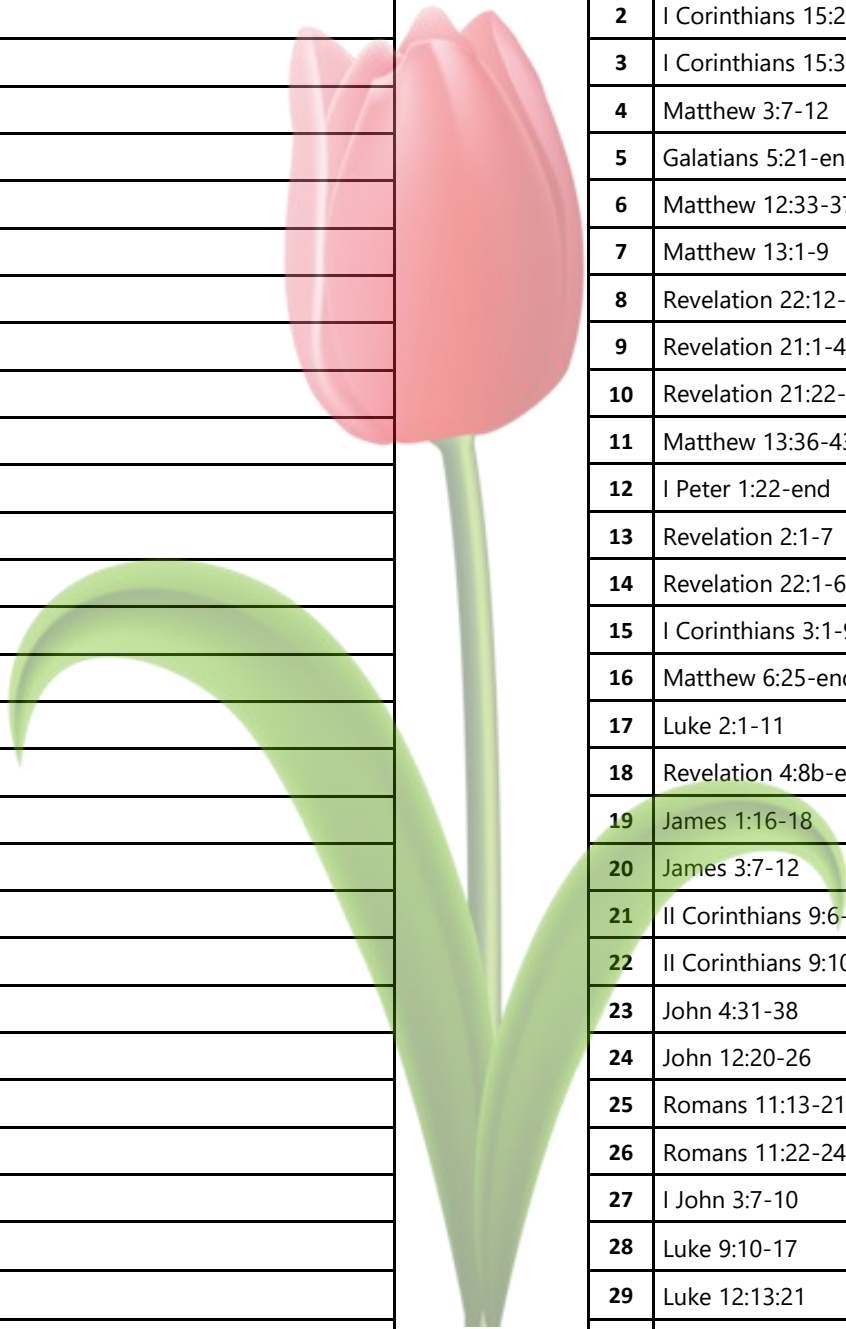

Welcome springtime, Easter and the signs of resurrection.
