October 31 is Reformation Day – the day Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses (statements) to the church door in Wittenberg where he was a priest and professor. The Theses main message was opposition to the idea that a person could do good works to gain heaven more quickly and more easily. Luther's message in the document and chief emphasis in the Reformation was "Salvation by Faith Alone" (Romans 1:17). This month's passages all contain the words of faith and trust. Happy Reformation Day!

A community that accepts, connects, and walks together toward Jesus.
