Hymn of Invocation: #644 – The Church's One Foundation

Invocation

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Exhortation

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Confession of Sins

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Absolution

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading:

Jonah 1:1-17

¹ The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai: ² “Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me.”

³ But Jonah ran away from the Lord and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the Lord.

⁴ Then the Lord sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up. ⁵ All the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship.

But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep. ⁶ The captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up and call on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us so that we will not perish.”

⁷ Then the sailors said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity.” They cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸ So they asked him, “Tell us, who is responsible for making all this trouble for us? What kind of work do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?”

⁹ He answered, “I am a Hebrew and I worship the Lord, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰ This terrified them and they asked, “What have you done?” (They knew he was running away from the Lord, because he had already told them so.)

¹¹ The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

¹² “Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he replied, “and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you.”

¹³ Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before. ¹⁴ Then they cried out to the Lord, “Please, Lord, do not let us die for taking this man’s life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man, for you, Lord, have done as you pleased.” ¹⁵ Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm. ¹⁶ At this the men greatly feared the Lord, and they offered a sacrifice to the Lord and made vows to him.

¹⁷ Now the Lord provided a huge fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm:

Psalm 107

P ²¹ Give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love

C and his wonderful deeds for mankind.

P ²² Let them sacrifice thank offerings

C and tell of his works with songs of joy.

P ²³ Some went out on the sea in ships;

C they were merchants on the mighty waters.

P ²⁴ They saw the works of the Lord,

C his wonderful deeds in the deep.

P ²⁵ For he spoke and stirred up a tempest

C that lifted high the waves.

P ²⁶ They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths;

C in their peril their courage melted away.

P ²⁷ They reeled and staggered like drunkards;

C they were at their wits' end.

P ²⁸ Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble,

C and he brought them out of their distress.

P ²⁹ He stilled the storm to a whisper;

C the waves of the sea were hushed.

P ³⁰ They were glad when it grew calm,

C and he guided them to their desired haven.

P ³¹ Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love

C and his wonderful deeds for mankind.

P ³² Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people

C and praise him in the council of the elders.

Epistle:

Romans 8:31–39

³¹ What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? ³³ Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ³⁶ As it is written:

“For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Alleluia & Verse

P Alleluia. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. Alleluia.

C Al-le - lu - ia. Al-le - lu - ia. Al-le - lu - ia.

Holy Gospel:

Mark 4:35-41

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the fourth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

³⁵ That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, "Let us go over to the other side." ³⁶ Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him. ³⁷ A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. ³⁸ Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?"

³⁹ He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

⁴⁰ He said to his disciples, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?"

⁴¹ They were terrified and asked each other, "Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life ✠ everlasting. Amen.

Hymn of the Day: #752 – Be Still, My Soul

God's Word is Taught and Applied: The Sermon

Peace in the Storm

Jonah 1:1-17 Mark 4:35-41

Unique picture for this week

The Lord of the Storm

The _____ rules every storm, and His greatest _____ is not merely to calm the _____—but to bring us to _____.

Consider Jonah:

He goes _____ to Joppa.

He goes _____ into the ship.

He goes _____ into the hold.

Eventually, he goes _____ into the sea.

Sin always moves us _____.

Running from God does not _____ us to buy a boat ticket.

God never loses _____ of His children.

Sometimes God uses unexpected _____ to awaken us.

God Often Interrupts _____ Lives

Jesus Enters _____ Storm as the Greater Jonah

Jesus calms the _____ and then addresses their faith.

Taking it Home this Week:

1. Running from God's Word always leads downward, but God's pursuit is an act of mercy.
2. Jesus is the greater Jonah.
3. God remains Lord over every storm.
4. The greatest storm has already been calmed.

Develop your spiritual walk this week by pondering:

1. What are some subtle ways Christians today "run from God" without physically leaving?
2. What is the difference between asking Jesus to remove a storm and trusting Him within the storm?
3. How do the readings this week encourage you to trust Christ more fully, even when you cannot yet see how He is at work?

C hear our prayer;

P As You live and reign, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever,

C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

C Our Father who art in heaven,

who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

The Collect for Blessing on the Word

P Lord God, bless Your Word wherever it is proclaimed. Make it a word of power and peace to convert those not yet Your own and to confirm those who have come to saving faith. May Your Word pass from the ear to the heart, from the heart to the lip, and from the lip to the life that, as You have promised, Your Word may achieve the purpose for which You sent it; through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

C Amen.
