

What is it?

Dental insurance covers preventative dental care like cleanings, along with more serious oral health needs.

Why is this coverage valuable?

When you're maintaining good oral health, you're protecting your overall well-being.

Your dental coverage

Dental health maintenance organization (DHMO)

Contribution	You pay the cost of your coverage.
General information	Trips to the dentist are less upsetting when you know how much you'll pay ahead of time. And easier, too, with no claim forms or deductibles. Here's how this important coverage works. - You choose your primary-care dentist when you enroll. To find a participating dentist, visit Idc.lfg.com and select Find a Dentist. - If you need to visit your dentist after your coverage begins, but before receiving your dental ID card, call 888-877-7828 to arrange your care. To expedite the call, provide: - The exact spelling of your first and last name submitted at enrollment - Birthdate - To access your dental health information online, select REGISTER NOW and follow the prompts to complete your registration. You'll need your Member ID number, which is located on your dental ID card.¹ You can also print a dental ID card from this website. ¹ Note: The Member ID number contains nine digits. Please use all proceeding zeros when entering it.

For additional information and details on your plan offering, please see your policy.
