PREFACE FOR SUMMER

We give you thanks, O Lord, for summer days, for waterfalls, and waves, that beat on lazy shores, for the fruit of April's blossoms and gardens of delight.

We give you thanks for murmuring sound and brilliant wings, for all your carnival of living things, birds and butterflies, and honeybees, that cannot keep the secret of your art but wears it in magnolia trees and dandelions and green carpets on the valleys.

We thank you now for laughter and for rest, for animals and fish and time to play, for friends, and love's embrace, and for the hope that endless summer is a hint of our eternal joys.

Lord for our happiness and sorrow's end, we give you laughter, and our praise.

Joseph Thomas Nolan

Playing it safe: A Sobering and Yet Absolutely True Message about Love and the Human heart

Love anything and your heart will certainly be wrung and possibly broken. If you want to make sure of keeping it intact, you must give your heart to no one, not even to an animal. Wrap it carefully round with hobbies and little luxuries; avoid all entanglement; lock it up safe in the casket or coffin of your selfishness. But in that casket - safe, dark, motionless, airless - it will change. It will not be broken; it will become unbreakable, impenetrable, and irredeemable.

C. S. Lewis

JUST FOR LAUGHS

A Bishop visits a nursing home. He comes upon an elderly woman fast asleep in her chair. While she looks every bit of her 90 years of age, the complete N.Y. Times crossword puzzle in her lap gave evidence of her yet nimble mind.

Nudging her gently, the bishop greeted her saying, "Hello there, my friend, do you know who I am?" Patiently opening her tired eyes, the woman replied, "No, but if you go up to the front desk, someone will tell you who you are."

SOMETHING TO CONSIDER

"The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceased to draw man to himself. Only in God will man find the truth and happiness he never stops yearning for."

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, Chapter One, Section One)

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS TO FAMILIES

"When a man and woman celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony, God, as it were, 'is mirrored' in them; he impresses in them his own features and the indelible character of his love. Marriage is the icon of God's love for us. Indeed, God is communion too: the three Persons of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit live eternally in perfect unity. And this is precisely the mystery of matrimony: God makes of the two spouses one single life. The Bible uses a powerful expression and says 'one flesh,' so intimate is the union between man and woman in marriage. And this is precisely the mystery of marriage: the love of God which is reflected in the couple that decides to live together. Therefore a man leaves his home, the home of his parents, and goes to life with his wife and unites himself so strongly to her that the two become - the Bible says - one flesh."

(Pope Francis, General Audience, St. Peter's Square, April 2, 2014)

SAYINGS OF THE SAINTS

"In common with the angels of heaven and the spirits of God, we have been created in the image and likeness of God. If, in common with them, we are to lead a spiritual life, we need as our food the grace of the Holy Spirit and the charity of God. But grace and charity are nothing without faith for without faith it is impossible to please God. Nor can faith come about without the preaching of the word of God."

(St. Lawrence of Brindisi, whose Feast Day is July 21)

THE WISDOM OF FULTON SHEEN

"Most commit the same mistake with God that they do with their friends: they do all the talking."

THANK YOU

St. Patrick's received a check for $3,846.15 for our food pantry from the Diocesan McDevitt Grant program.

Spiritual Adoption of a Preborn Child

Archbishop Fulton Sheen composed a prayer for the spiritual adoption of a preborn child and recommended that it be prayed every day for nine months, as the baby grows in his/her mother's womb. That prayer is available at the entrances along with information about the development of this precious new life. Please consider spiritually adopting a child and praying for him/her, perhaps while praying Grace before a meal, or at bedtime!
