POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS TO FAMILIES

“The love of Christ, which has blessed and sanctified the union of husband and wife, is able to sustain their love and to renew it when, humanly speaking, it becomes lost, wounded, or worn out. The love of Christ can restore to spouses the joy of journeying together. This is what marriage is all about: man and woman walking together, wherein the husband helps his wife to become ever more a woman, and wherein the woman has the task of helping her husband to become ever more a man. This is the task that you both share. “I love you, and for this love I help you to become ever more woman”; “I love you, and for this love I help you to become ever more a man.” (Homily at Mass to the Rite of Marriage, St. Peter’s Square, September 14, 2014)

SAYINGS OF THE SAINTS

“The soul’s entire holiness and perfection lies in love for Jesus Christ, our God, our highest good, our Redeemer. Charity is the bond and safeguard of all the virtues which perfect man.” (St. Alphonsus Mary De Liguori, whose feast day is August 1)

NEXT CEMETERY CLEAN UP

Please join us on Saturday, August 12 at 9:00 am for our next cemetery summer clean-up. The cemetery is the final resting place for many of our loved ones. Let’s pay tribute to them by keeping the area looking its best. Your hands are needed. Please bring sturdy work gloves and any lawn equipment you have. This ministry is very important; we hope that you will join us.

SOMETHING TO CONSIDER

“The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceased to draw man to himself. Only in God will man find the truth and happiness he never stops yearning for.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, Chapter One, Section One)

THE WISDOM OF FULTON SHEEN

“The humble are not cast down by the censure or the slights of others. If they have unconsciously given occasion for them, they amend their faults; if they deserve them not, they treat them as trifles.”

NEW ENVELOPES ARE HERE

The new envelopes for August and September are now available for you to pick up after Mass in the front vestibule.

Please take a moment and pick up your envelopes today. Thank you.

SAYINGS OF THE SAINTS

“This is the duty of man: to pray and to love. If you pray and love, that is where a man’s happiness lies. Prayer is nothing else but union with God...This union of God with a tiny creature is a lovely thing. It is happiness beyond understanding... Through prayer we receive a foretaste of heaven and something of paradise comes down upon us.”
(St. John Marie Vianney, whose Feast Day is August 4)

Did you hear the one about...

A woman died and went to heaven – which was more beautiful than she’d ever imagined. She couldn’t wait to show it to her husband (when he eventually arrived) because he was an eternal pessimist. A year later her husband joined her, and she took him on a tour. “The sky, the flowers, the music, the people – heaven is truly heaven, isn’t it?” she exclaimed. He surveyed paradise briefly, and then said, “Sure. And if it weren’t for you and your doggoned oat bran, we’d have been here five years sooner.

ST. MICHAEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against
the wickedness and snares
of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we,
humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly hosts, by the power of God,
cast into hell satan, and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Prayer for Generosity
(St. Ignatius Loyola Feast Day – July 31)

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous;
teach me to serve you as you
deserve,
to give and not to count the
cost,
to fight and not to heed the
wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to seek
reward,
except that of knowing that I do your will. Amen

Quote from St. John Vianny (Feast Day – August 4)

“We must take great care
never to do anything before having said our morning
prayers....The Devil once declared that if he could have the first moment of the day, he was sure of all the rest.”
