

National Baseball Hall of Fame

Cooperstown, NY

Induction Ceremony

July 26, 2026 (Sunday)

*Welcome to the National Baseball
Hall of Fame!*

Inductees will be announced in Jan 2026.

On June 12, 1939, the National Baseball Museum opened its doors for the first time, in honor of the 100th anniversary of the mythical “first game” that allegedly was played in Cooperstown on June 12, 1839. The first four classes of Hall of Fame electees were Honored on that day in 1939.

Located on Main Street in the heart of picturesque Cooperstown, New York, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is one of the country’s most popular destinations and is surely the best-known sports shrine in the world.

It is every fan’s “Field of Dreams” with its stories, legends and magic to be passed on from generation to generation.
