Payment Options

Our funeral home is a small business and like many others in the community, out of necessity, we operate on a cash basis, relying upon the families we serve for prompt payment. In the past, J.T. Morriss & Son was willing to extend credit over a period of months or years. Unfortunately, over time our generosity has been taken advantage of and we are no longer willing to extend any type of credit. Payment in full is due the day funeral arrangements are made.

For your benefit we have provided several options below that we will accept for payment. Please choose the one that suits your needs and situation best. We encourage your frank discussion of these matters with your funeral director, and we will attempt to assist you in any way possible.

- Prepaid funeral arrangements made with J.T. Morriss & Son.
All charges not included in the pre-paid funeral arrangement must be paid at time of arrangements.

- Cash, Check or Credit Card - We accept VISA, MasterCard or Discover.

- Assignment of proceeds of a verified Life Insurance Policy

Assignment of a life insurance policy can be taken ONLY if all the criteria listed below is met:

A. We have the total cooperation of ALL parties involved - insurance company that holds the policy and every beneficiary.

B. We are able to contact the insurance company and confirm coverage, the amount of the death benefit and the names of all beneficiaries.

C. The insurance company will accept our assignment and claim paperwork.

D. All beneficiaries are present and willing to complete and sign the claim paperwork

NOTE: Therefore, on nights, weekends and holidays when we are not able to verify the policy, assignments will not be accepted. Any balance owed after the death benefit has been determined is required at time of arrangements. Insurance assignments will not be accepted for: Honeywell Retiree Insurance or Veterans Affairs Insurance Company.

When using Life Insurance or Credit Card to pay for funeral expenses please note that a fee of 3.5% will be added to the total cost of services selected.

FUNERAL HOME & CREMATION SERVICE

CODE OF GOOD FUNERAL PRACTICE

As funeral directors, our calling imposes upon us special responsibilities to those we serve and to the public at large. An important obligation is to provide information so that everyone can make knowledgeable decisions about funeral and cremation services.

In accepting our responsibilities, and as a condition of our affiliation with Selected Independent Funeral Homes, we affirm the following standards of good practice and hereby pledge:

1. To provide the public with information about funeral and cremation services, including prices, functions and the responsibilities of funeral directors
2. To make services available in as wide a range of price categories as necessary to meet the needs of all segments of our community, and to affirmatively extend to everyone the right to inspect and freely consider them all
3. To quote conspicuously in writing the charge for every arrangement offered, and to clearly identify the services, facilities, equipment and merchandise included in such quotations
4. To adhere to the highest standard of conduct in all aspects of business
5. To afford an ongoing opportunity to all persons to discuss or arrange funerals in advance
6. To ensure that pre-need contracts fully disclose those items which are guaranteed and those which are nonguaranteed, in terms that are clear and easy to understand
7. To manage prepaid funds responsibly, ensuring that promises are honored and expectations are met, within the letter and spirit of the law
8. To make no representation, written or oral, which may be false or misleading and to apply a standard of honesty in all dealings
9. To furnish each family, at the time arrangements are made, with a written memorandum of charges and to make no additional charge without their approval
10. To respect all faiths, creeds and customs, and to give full effect to the role of the clergy/ celebrant
11. To maintain qualified and competent staff, appropriate facilities and suitable equipment required for comprehensive funeral and cremation services
12. To assure those we serve the right of personal choice in making service arrangements

We pledge to conduct ourselves at all times in a manner deserving of the public trust, and to provide a copy of this Code of Good Practice to the families we serve.
