Wedding Music Policies:

- Our Lady of Perpetual Help musicians must be used for the liturgy. Outside musicians are allowed to sing an approved prelude and Communion hymn only.
- Music for all processions must be instrumental pieces played on the organ. Couples may pick from a list provided by the Director of Music.
- The music for the Mass itself is a set menu of selections. The setting of the ordinary parts of the Mass is at the discretion of the Director of Music. Couples may choose whether the ordinary is in Latin or English. Couples may choose the text of the sung Responsorial Psalm and may select an Offertory and Communion hymn from a list of approved pieces.

The following approved musical selections are available for use during the wedding liturgy. Please indicate your choices by checking the appropriate boxes below.
